Federal Prohibition Agents Produce New Theory in Interviews With Press

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—(UP)—An investigation by federal prohibition agents today turned up a theory that the North side gang massacre in which seven men were killed here yesterday may have been executed by policemen in the pay of the liquor syndicate.

F. D. Siloway, who was assigned to the case by the prohibition department, told the United Press he had "confidential information" indicating that policemen in uniform had participated in the killing because they were not properly rewarded for their part in hi-jacking a truck load of whisky two weeks ago on Indianapolis boulevard.

The St. Valentine's day gang massacre, was reenacted today at the scene of the crime.

With assistant states attorneys and policemen playing the roles of victims and raiders, the demonstration was put on for the benefit of a coroner's jury of prominent citizens which visited the North side garage where the firing squad mowed down its enemies yesterday morning.

While the coroner's inquest was in progress every agency at the command of the police and state's attorneys departments were sweeping through beer flats and gambling houses throughout the city in search of suspects or persons who might explain the motive or furnish a clue to the persons who engineered the massacre.

Upwards of 30 persons were detained, including the fur coated widows of the beer runner victims. The usual gang code of silence, however, sealed the lips of everyone who was questioned and the police got no new information.

From the report of Coroner Herman Hundesen, whose assistants had worked all night performing autopsies on the seven bodies, the jury, headed by Bert A. Masse, multi-millionaire soap manufacturer.

FOOD SHORTAGE IN EUROPE IS GROWING ACUTE

LONDON, Feb. 15.—(UP)—Shortage of food, fuel and drinking water in big European cities grew more acute today under the continued pressure of the most intense cold in many years, and at some points, in centuries.

Berlin, Vienna, Belgrade and London suffered principally, the latter from a water shortage which was growing intense. Snowbound freight trains were unable to take food and fuel into Berlin and Vienna. The Belgrade water supply was almost frozen and homes were suffering for want of coal.

The Thames, Seine and Rhine were frozen in places for the first time in years and 100 vessels were icebound in the Baltic sea today.

Railway service through the continent and in England was disrupted completely or badly impaired. Trains between Vienna and Budapest were suspended temporarily because of a snow blockade.

Wolves and wild boars abandoned their forest lairs and encroached on the edges of civilization. More than a score of persons have been killed this week by wolves.

Three boys were found dead on an ice floe on Lake Constance, on the Swiss-German border, after their had drifted all night. Five others were rescued from the same floe with their limbs frozen.

The death toll for the past six days totalled 166 specifically reported. Many other deaths were believed to have occurred.

A gypsy caravan said to number 40 was drowned Wednesday when the band straddled across the River Drave on ice that was too thin. Reports received at Vienna from Zagreb said today.

Gypsies were especially affected by the cold wave, condemned by their homeless wandering and the reputation they have among continental peasants. At least 73 were dead.

The canals of Venice were filled with blocks of ice last night as the city shivered in the worst weather since 1788. Gondolas eased their way through ice as they went about.

A temperature of 2 below zero, Fahrenheit, was recorded at Berlin yesterday. It was zero at Hamburg and 9 above at Danzig.

In Paris, the temperature was 10 above zero. Four more inches of snow fell at Cannes Wednesday night and water tanks there were frozen. All sports were cancelled.

A rescue train was sent to Szekesfehar, Hungary, where a train with 170 passengers was imprisoned in a snowdrift.

The fuel shortage grew worse in Czechoslovakia. All trains, except those carrying food and coal, were cancelled. Coal rationing was introduced, government officials said.

Several lifeboats were kept busy going to the rescue of crews of steamers which went aground at various points on the coast. Mariners said a 12-hour blizzard in the English channel was the worst in 25 years.

COLONEL LINDBERGH OFF FOR NEW YORK

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 15.—(UP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh winged his way north today, bound for New York by nightfall if weather conditions permit.

Lindbergh left the Pan-American airport in a Curtiss Falcon plane shortly before 8 a. m. Before stepping into the cockpit he said he "might" stop enroute at Sapelo island, winter estate of Howard E. Coffin, millionaire automobile manufacturer.

Pan-American Airways, of which Lindbergh is technical adviser, said if weather was good, Lindbergh should reach New York in 11 hours. A blue sky and bright sun greeted the monoplane as it took the air.

LINDY WEDDING IN MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 15.—The capital expects the wedding of Miss Anne Spencer Morrow and Col. Charles A. Lindbergh to be held in May or June, probably in May.

If Lindbergh comes here at the end of this month to open the new Brownsville-Mexico City air mail route, as expected, it was believed the date would be set then.

Lindbergh, it was assumed, would prefer Mexico City as the place for the wedding, since he has often expressed fondness for this country, where he first met his fiancée, and he probably would be able to get greater privacy here than in the United States. Miss Morrow's wishes in the matter are known only to herself.

Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow, at his weekly conference with the press yesterday, declined to make any reference to his daughter's wedding and only smiled at attempts to draw him out. He made arrangements for all newspapers to receive approved photographs of his daughter.

STATE SOLONS GATHERING IN SACRAMENTO FOR SESSION OF LEGISLATURE NEXT MONDAY

By HOMER L. ROBERTS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 15.—With the reassembling of the California state legislature only three days away, members of both houses were arriving in Sacramento today from all parts of the state, to be present at several important caucuses scheduled before the houses convene here Monday.

The legislature will open the second half of its 1929 session without any formality of organization. Committee hearings will be launched immediately upon the pending tax bills, which must be adopted before March 1, to take care of this year's assessment.

Details of the newly revised statewide water conservation program will be made known early in the session, and the report of the water commission's two year study will be subject of a final meeting here Sunday.

It is generally expected that the committee will recommend that the state embark immediately upon construction of the $70,000,000 Kennett dam in Shasta county, which will provide water for the thirsty lands of San Joaquin valley.

Relief from the deadly grind of lawmaking is promised by the appearance of Almee Semple McPherson, who has been subpoenaed by the committee to investigate the proposed impeachment of Judge Carlos Hardy for accepting a check for $2500 from the evangelist.

Mrs. McPherson will testify before the committee March 21, and explain why the $2500 "love gift" to Judge Hardy was entered in the Angelus Temple's records under the heading of "defense." If the assembly files a statement of impeachment, Judge Hardy would be tried in the senate, which would probably lengthen the session by several weeks.

Having run up against an apparent impasse by the refusal of officials and managers of large California cement corporations to produce their books and records before a legislative hearing, the senate's "cement trust" investigating committee may file contempt proceedings against these officials.

At the Los Angeles hearing of the cement committee, attorneys insisted that the committee had no authority as a judicial body, and questioned the legality of being required to reveal "trade secrets" to their competitors.

Three Condemned Murderers Given Last Minute Stay

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—(UP)—Three convicted murderers were saved from execution, scheduled here for early today, by last minute stays. Dave Shanks, Negro, convicted of beating to death a young Peoria school teacher, was the last to be granted a stay.

Judge Dennis Normoyle granted Shanks' attorneys 21 days in which to draw up a petition for clemency, only a few hours before Shanks was to have died in the electric chair.

Earlier yesterday, Charles Walz and Anthony Grecco, convicted of murdering a policeman, were granted stays until next Wednesday. They will appeal for a writ of supersedeas.

MURDERER HANGED.

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Calif., Feb. 15.—(UP)—Edgar Lapierre was hanged on the San Quentin gallows today for the murder of an Oakland policeman. The trap was sprung at 10:06 a. m., and Lapierre was pronounced dead at 10:19 a. m.

POLICE SLAYER RUNS UP STEPS TO DEATH TRAP

Condemned Youth Exhibits Amazing Nerve As He Goes to Gallows

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Feb. 15.—(UP)—Edgar Lapierre, slayer of an Oakland detective, went smilingly to death on the San Quentin gallows here this morning.

"His amazing nerve, steady to the last, the young murderer fairly ran up the thirteen steps to the trap in the center of the little death chamber at 10:05 a. m.

Less than a minute later the heavy trap clanged and 10:19 Lapierre was pronounced dead by Dr. L. Stanley, the prison physician.

A remarkable prisoner, according to officials of the prison, Lapierre had never shown fear nor awe of death from the time he entered condemned row.

When Warden James E. Holohan entered the death cell at 10 o'clock he inquired as to Lapierre's feelings.

"I'm fine, warden," the condemned youth answered, "but make it snappy."

Guards said he slept 10 hours last night, apparently peacefully. Arising at 7 o'clock he ate a heavy breakfast of ham and eggs, wrote a letter to the warden and calmly awaited the guards who would take him to the gallows in the adjoining room.

One of Lapierre's last acts was to write the veterans' insurance bureau and transfer his war risk insurance policy from his wife's name to that of his three-year-old daughter. He made no final mention of his wife, who is serving an indeterminate sentence in San Quentin for complicity in the crime for which he was hanged.

More than a hundred witnesses attended the execution, including Chief of Police Donald Marshall, of Oakland, and other fellow officers of William Davis, Lapierre's victim. Four witnesses fainted as the trap fell. They were revived by attendants.

SAN DIEGO PORT OF NEW U.S. SUBMARINE

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 15.—(UP)—With the assignment here of the new $6,500,000 mine-laying submarine V-4 by the navy department, this naval base will become the home port for all submarines of the V type, navy officials announced today.

The V-4, now completing acceptance trials on the east coast, is the world's largest submersible craft. It is reported to have a cruising radius of 20,000 miles. Its displacement is nearly 3000 tons and it is credited with surface speed of 17 knots.

Two specially constructed hatches at bow and stern opened under bell-shaped coverings. These allow the rapid escape of the crew should the craft suddenly become unable to raise itself to the surface.

CURB SEAT SOLD.

MEN ACCUSED BY GETZOFF IN KEYES SCANDAL UNDER WATCH

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 15.—(UP)—The six men named by Ben Getzoff as members of a widespread bribery ring which he charged was headed by Asa Keyes, convicted former district attorney, are being kept under constant surveillance and there is not a chance of them leaving the city before they are indicted, Bureau Fitts, present prosecutor, said today.

The case is being prepared for the incoming 1929 grand jury, investigation of Getzoff's revelations not having been completed in time for presentation before the grand jury which finishes today.

"Speed is not necessary in this case," Fitts said. "Keyes, Getzoff and Ed Rosenberg are in jail. We are watching the others. They would not leave anyway. That would be an admission of guilt."

Getzoff charged that three of Keyes' deputies, two prominent officials and a lawyer were involved in an extortion ring of which Keyes was the master mind.

Keyes, Getzoff and Rosenberg, convicted of conspiring to bribe in the Julian Petroleum corporation cases prosecuted by Keyes, are held in the county jail awaiting sentence next Tuesday. Their attorneys will argue motions for a new trial at that time.

Two Girls And Escorts Taken To San Diego

One of Quartet Confesses Robbing Three Homes In Southern City

ASSETED to have been the thieves who last Monday and Tuesday entered three fashionable San Diego homes, stealing diamonds, jewelry and clothing valued at $15,000, two girls and two men were taken to San Diego last night, after their capture, in Laguna Beach, by Abe Johnson, chief of police, and Motorcycle Officer Stromerson.

The two officers were working in conjunction with the San Diego police department at the time the quartet was arrested. Sheriff's officers brought them to jail here and the San Diego police came after them immediately.

The loot, consisting of much jewelry, several fur coats and several rings, was found in seven suitcases in the car in which the four were returning to Los Angeles, it was said.

According to information received at the sheriff's office here, the four persons, Catherine Durant, 21, and Virginia Langdon, 19, telephone operators at San Francisco and John Adams, 33, and Frank Brown, who gave San Diego addresses here, were accused of having stolen an automobile in Oakland, driving it to Los Angeles, where they exchanged cars and went to San Diego.

According to F. W. Howard, chief criminal deputy sheriff, Adams admitted the three burglaries while the prisoners were awaiting San Diego officers.

LONG BEACH VOTES ON CHARTER FEB. 26

LONG BEACH, Feb. 15.—(UP)—Choice between an entirely new city charter or the adoption of 16 new amendments to the present charter will be made by Long Beach voters at a special election February 26.

Acceptance of the new charter would abolish the harbor commission and the office of city manager and would confer on the city council the right to demand the resignation of any official who holds office by appointment. Powers of the director of public service would be increased almost to the extent of those now held by the city manager.

The 16 amendments would create the office of city prosecutor, increase the importance of the assistant city manager, provide for increased salary for certain officials and provide an annual entertainment fund for the mayor.

British Diplomat Declares Passage on Naval Bill Blocked An Early Move

By A. L. BRADFORD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—(UP)—A new major effort to bring about an agreement between the world powers on further limitation of armaments is about to be made.

This formal prediction was made today by Sir Esme Howard, ambassador from Great Britain to the United States, in an exclusive statement to the United Press.

The statement of Sir Esme, who is dean of the diplomatic corps in Washington, is of world-wide importance, as it constitutes in reality the first step among the powers looking to further disarmament.

Sir Esme's statement follows: "There would seem to be every reason to believe that, now that the 15 cruiser bill has become law a further effort before long will be made to reach an agreement between the principal naval powers of the world for the limitation of naval armaments.

"As long as that bill was under discussion any proposal to renew conversations on this vital subject might have been interpreted in the United States of America as an attempt to interfere with the passage of the bill.

"By its passage the ground is cleared and any discussions that take place will certainly proceed on the assumption that these ships will be built. The English elections which will take place this summer may, however, postpone any discussion of this kind for some months longer.

"The disarmament clause of the covenant of the league of nations (article 8) makes it practically imperative that all members of the league should make further efforts toward the restriction of armaments. The United States has hitherto shown itself favorable to the idea of continuing negotiations for an agreement in this sense. It would therefore seem that everything points toward an early resumption of negotiations and, with a far better understanding of the needs of the respective parties that existed at Geneva in 1927, there should be a very good prospect of their being brought to a satisfactory conclusion."

Sir Esme's statement was made when the United Press correspondent interviewed the ambassador at the British embassy this morning concerning reports regarding the possibility of a new move in the disarmament situation. It is believed such a statement has been

3 DEPUTY SHERIFFS DISMISSED BY JURY

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 15.—(UP)—Three deputy sheriffs were ordered dismissed and three others suspended last night, when the grand jury concluded its investigation into county jail conditions.

All those disciplined were connected in some manner either with the privileges granted to Albert Marco, vice baron, or with the attempted jail break of two Folsom convicts.

The deputy sheriffs dismissed were J. E. King, who accompanied Marco on one of the numerous trips the underworld character made while he supposedly was held a prisoner in the jail; Al Spence, whose conduct of the jail store was said to have given Marco unusual luxuries; and William Stringfellow, turnkey in charge of re-voicers.

The men suspended were Ed Cordes, Jack West and George Shafer, all of whom accompanied Marco on jurnys outside the jail.

Edwards Scores Commission On Secondary Road Stand

SOUTHLAND NOT TREATED FAIR, SAYS SENATOR

Declarations by members of the state highway commission and others, at a recent Lions club meeting here, that additions to the secondary highway system, as proposed in a bill introduced in the state legislature by Senator N. T. Edwards, would seriously interfere with the commission's highway program, were pronounced "bunk" by Edwards in an address before the same club yesterday noon.

"The Other Side of the Question" was announced as the subject of the talk when Edwards was introduced by Lawrence Corring, program chairman.

Pointing out that northern California has 2445 miles of primary roads, compared with 1941 in the Southland; that distribution of funds for primary road operation is approximately 55 per cent to the north and 45 per cent to the south; and that motorists in the northern section pay 43 per cent of the gas tax and Southern California 58 per cent, Edwards said that this situation probably is all right, and asserted that he had no complaint to make on this score.

"The state legislature has not treated the Southland fair in its apportionment of secondary roads and I am going to fight for passage of my bill because its adoption in no way can interfere with the commission's program," Edwards said, in pointing out that under agreement the boards of supervisors in several counties in which the additional roads are located would continue maintenance for two years.

The senator stated that $6,000,000, available annually for secondary road maintenance, is not allocated by the commission, with the result that a greater proportion of that amount is spent on the 1771 miles of the secondary system in the north than is spent on the 525 miles in the system in the Southland.

B. B. Meeks, head of the state department of public works, in his address here, urged that no effort be made to force adoption of the Edwards measure during the present session of the state legislature, asserting that scientific investigation was necessary to determine whether or not all of the roads included in the bill should be taken over by the commission.

"It should not take even one day to get the data necessary to determine that point," Edwards said, in asserting that information has been and still is available to the commission. He pointed out, for instance, that checks on traffic in the Santa Ana canyon had been made frequently by the state highway commission and by Orange county, revealing a daily average of approximately 3500 cars on that road, with the number reaching as high as 7000 on Sundays.

"The Santa Ana canyon road carries more traffic in one day than passes over some sections of the secondary system in the north in one year," the senator commented. He pointed out that, according to statistics of the Auto Club of Southern California, Los Angeles county, which alone paid in 1928 $9,533,520 in gasoline taxes, compared with $10,167,360 collected in the 45 counties comprising the northern group, is asking for only 80 miles of highway in the 615 miles proposed to be added to the secondary system by his bill.

The senator made emphatic declaration that the movement for the increased mileage in the secondary system is not a political move. He commented on the fact that the movement was started many months ago, long before he ever thought of being a candidate for the senate.

Preceding the address by Edwards, the Rev. Perry F. Schrock paid a brief tribute to Lincoln in recognition of his birthday anniversary.

under consideration for some days. Just what form the new move for further disarmament will take, it is understood, has not yet been definitely decided by the British cabinet. It is likely, however, that the first step may take the form of a reply from Great Britain to President Coolidge's recent note to the powers which rejected the Anglo-French disarmament accord but left the door open for further negotiations.

Howard's statement to the United Press is expected to be a signal for bringing the naval disarmament question again to the foreground of world discussion. Now that the first word has been said, it is known important statements will be made on the question on both sides of the Atlantic and by Japan and other powers.

It has been expected that the next step in the disarmament situation takes form of a British reply to President Coolidge's note, the British response may await the arrival at the White House of President-elect Hoover. However, there is a possibility that the reply may be forthcoming before Mr. Coolidge leaves the White House.

$700,000 APPROVED FOR SHIP PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—(UP)—Decision by the senate finance committee, which has the naval appropriation bill under consideration, to make $700,000 of the $12,370,000 requested available at once, has marked another step in the differences between President Coolidge and congress over the naval construction program.

The action yesterday to appropriate the amount with the smaller amount to be available at once, came immediately following submission to congress by Mr. Coolidge of a proposal the entire amount be appropriated to start construction during the next fiscal year beginning July 1. The proposal ignored the provision of the law requiring five of the ships to be laid down before that time.

GERMANS STILL PRESENT CASE BEFORE ALLIES

Numerous interruptions came from the allied experts.

Emile Moreau, governor of the bank of France; Emile Fraoulet, Belgian expert; and Alberto Pirelli, of Italy, were the most frequent questioners. They insisted on ascertaining what portion of German borrowing were employed in industrial development and what share went to municipal enterprises.

Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, led the discussion for Germany, but he was joined by his colleagues in replying to the cross fire of questions that sought to determine the proportion of the loans were devoted directly to industrial developments.

The experts will discontinue plenary sessions, beginning next Monday, it was reported, and the conference will then proceed in a series of private meetings in different salons of the Hotel George the Fifth.

Committees of the conference will study the mass of detail presented on Germany's credit situation, internal revenue, trade balance, industrial turnover and standard of living with data supporting their claims which subsequently will be presented.

Dr. Schacht will conclude the presentation of Germany's case, Saturday, it was reported, when he will sum up the position of Germany with respect to the present and future payments under the Dawes plan. Various spokesmen insisted that Dr. Schacht had not made any specific declarations regarding the poverty of the German treasury because he is planning to present final claims in this respect Saturday both as already indicated in the reichsbank report and in various public statements preceding the meeting of the experts.

The president pointed out that delivery of the talk before the "mike" would result in good publicity for this city, as the award of the honor in the contest will be made on the basis of the best presentation of Santa Ana attractions.

Other entertainment will be provided at the meeting, which is to be held in the basement of the Pacific building, Broadway and Third, starting at 7:30.

A WORD OF COMFORT

It is not physical prowess which elevates you above the brute creation, nor is it shrewdness and intelligence. It is your capacity for idealism and your ability and your choice to make sacrifices to attain your exalted purposes, the highest of which is communion and co-operation with an eternal Person whom you love and trust.
You have never before realized so completely that this involves until you were face to face with the supreme trial of your life. Now you have learned that instead of standing paralyzed before an inscrutable mystery, you are looking confidently forward to reunion with the one you love the best and to an eternity of realization.

HUNDREDS TO ATTEND EVENT IN BEACH CITY

LAGUNA BEACH, Feb. 15.—Artists from all over Southern California, as well as visiting artists from other states and many prominent visitors, are expected at the formal opening of the new gallery of the Laguna Beach Art association Saturday afternoon and evening.

Officers of the association have been working feverishly to get everything in readiness, and the opening exhibit is said to be the best that has ever been held in this city of art and artists.

The new concrete walled modern gallery is claimed by experts to be correct in design and as fine a gallery as will be seen anywhere, viewed from the practical standpoint of adequately exhibiting paintings. With all light derived from the top, the pictures are given the best possible advantage.

It is claimed that the new gallery is one of the few in the world which have been erected through the energy and perseverance of artists and largely through the efforts of artists. No sum of any consequence has been received, but contributions have been small in size though numerous.

The formal opening and reception will be held from 2 to 5 in the afternoon and from 8 to 11 in the evening, and is expected to be one of the outstanding events in the history of the city.

The present board of the association consists of Anna A. Hills, president, William A. Griffith, first vice president; Karl Yens, second vice president; Eleanor Colburn, treasurer; Virginia Woolley, secretary; Alice T. Parker, corresponding secretary; Clarence K. Hinkle, Alice V. Fullerton and Thomas L. Hunt.

TALLEY JAILED AS CONDITION OF PROBATION

Superior Judge James L. Allen today sentenced J. B. Talley, Santa Ana taxi driver, to a term of one year in the county jail for his part in contributing to the delinquency of a young girl, an affair involving a Santa woman, who also was sentenced today, and another man, Jack Kinser, who already has been sentenced to a year in the county jail and has appealed his case.

Liquor played a prominent part in the affair, to which the young girl is alleged to have been led by Lucy Martinez and at which she is said to have been induced to take her first drink of gin. Lucy Martinez was sentenced to three months in the county jail today, although probation was granted by the court for two years.

"Her part in the affair was most reprehensible," said the court. "She went out and brought a 15-year-old girl to a drinking party and if it were not for her present condition, there would be a more severe sentence." It developed at today's hearing that the Martinez woman expects to become a mother.

Deputy District Attorney S. B. Kaufman, after acting as prosecutor in the case of Kinser, appeared today to argue in favor of a jail term for Talley and the Martinez woman.

She was represented by D. G. Wetlin, while Talley was represented by O. A. Jacobs. When Talley took the stand today he admitted that he had produced the liquor of which the young girl is said to have partaken. He denied, however, that he had taken any other part in the affair. He was surprised, he said, when he saw the young girl in the apartment with Kinser and Lucy Martinez, stating that he told her she would have to leave at once. He admitted, however, that she had been his "partner" in an automobile ride which the party took. Talley said he got the quart of gin used in the party from the floor of his car after he had brought a drunken man and woman to Santa Ana two months ago from a nearby community. He took them to their homes, he said, and when he got the car to his garage found the bottle on the floor. This was the liquor used in the party, he stated.

Talley's sentence of one year in the county jail was a condition to probation, granted by the court from a sterner sentence which might have been imposed. Talley and the Martinez woman had pleaded guilty. The woman testified in the case against Kinser.

farm advisor, at 606 North Main street. All those interested in the meeting will be welcome. A. L. Pickens, who has made a study of the termite question, will give a talk and show slides depicting their activity.

No one was injured when automobiles driven by Leslie Trueman, 1928 West Seventeenth street, and Billy Autrey, 609 West First street, collided at the intersection of Third street and Pacific avenue at 7 o'clock last night, according to a report made at the city police station.

SECOND ENTRANCE EXAM SCHEDULED

An examination in subject A entrance examination for the junior college has been scheduled for 2 p. m. Tuesday, February 19, in room 2 of the junior college, according to an announcement made today by T. H. Glenn, head of the English department of the college.

As several students have entered late and others desire admission it was deemed necessary to hold the examination again, although one examination for the semester already has been held. As this will be a late examination, a fee of $1 will be charged, doubling the usual fee.

All those contemplating immediate entrance to the college should take the examination, according to the announcement, as registration is not permitted until after the applicant has taken the exam.

SHRINERS HERE RESERVE SEATS AT CONVENTION

Having spent yesterday in Los Angeles, Joseph P. Stith, secretary of the Orange County Shrine club, today announced that he had made reservation for 108 seats in the routing section of the Coliseum for the annual Shrine convention, to be held in Los Angeles in June. While these seats have been definitely reserved for County Shrine club members, arrangements have been made whereby those who were late making their choice will be taken care of if they notify the secretary soon of the number of seats they wish.

All arrangements will have to be made at as early a date as possible, stated the club secretary, who explained that Shriners from eastern states who are planning to attend the convention are sending out for large blocks of seats. Medina temple, Chicago, sent a check for $5500 for 100 seats and similar reservations are being made by other temples.

Orange county Shriners also were informed that Noble Leroy M. Edwards, potentate of Al Malakiah temple, Los Angeles, and a former resident of this county, had announced his plans for staging a big mid-summer ceremonial in Orange County park, where candidates will "cross the burning sands."

SUSAN CHAFFEE, GARDEN GROVE PIONEER, DIES

Mrs. Susan Chaffee, prominently identified with the social and church life of Garden Grove for the last 43 years, died today in her home in Garden Grove at the age of 77 years.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Monday, in the first Methodist church, Garden Grove, with Smith and Tutill in charge. The Rev. J. M. Ocheltree, pastor of the Garden Grove church, will officiate.

The pioneer is survived by five children, Miss Nettie, Edward and Ralph, of Garden Grove; Dr. Burns Chaffee, Long Beach, and Mrs. Lella Strigley, Berkeley.

Mrs. Chaffee came with her husband from Elgin, Ill., to Garden Grove, in 1881, and was a real pioneer of this community. The family located on a 20-acre tract near Garden Grove and Mrs. Chaffee has resided continuously on that property for the 48 years she spent here. Mr. Chaffee died in 1920.

Grape growing was the first principal occupation of the Chaffees and it is believed that Mr. Chaffee was the first man to introduce in Orange county heating plants for artificial drying of raisins. He was known as a successful grape grower when that industry was thriving in Orange county.

Gets Folsom Term On Larceny Count

Robert Thurlow, of Orange, who said he had taken a car from a garage where he was working in order to answer an urgent request to visit his wife in the east, was sentenced to a term of from one to 10 years in Folsom when he appeared before Superior Judge James L. Allen today for a probation hearing, after pleading guilty to a grand theft charge filed by Deputy District Attorney S. B. Kaufman.

Thurlow, who was released from the Arizona state prison on December 15, after serving time there on a grand larceny charge, told the court today that he had taken a car which had been brought to the garage by a woman, who had asked that it be greased.

SERVICES FOR MRS. HENRY, 90. ON SATURDAY

ANAHEIM, Feb. 15.—Funeral services will be held from the Backs-Terry and Campbell funeral chapel for Mrs. Catherine Mason Henry, 90, at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The services will be conducted by the Rev. Benjamin S. Haywood, pastor of the White Temple Methodist church.

Mrs. Henry had been ill but a few hours when she passed away Tuesday evening. She had lived in Anaheim for the past 60 years and had been married for 70 years. Mrs. Henry celebrated her ninetieth birthday anniversary on December 27, 1928.

Surviving Mrs. Henry is her husband, Capt. Alexander N. Henry, whose 99th birthday occurs today. Mrs. Henry was a native of Scotland and was married to Captain Henry in 1862 at Lieth, Scotland. Two years later the Henrys came to Anaheim, which was then a grape colony. They were among the first settlers to turn their grape land into citrus and walnut acreage, selling off all but 50 acres of their land for this purpose after the "Anthem disease" had wiped out the grape industry.

Mrs. Henry is survived by three sons, Innes Henry, of this city; Arch Henry, living on Garden Grove road, and John Henry, of Anaheim, and six grandsons, six granddaughters and four great-grandchildren.

Burial will be made in the Henry family plot in Anaheim. Pallbearers will be Joseph Carroll, William McCann, Louis Miller, Jacob Bakeman, Tom Jackson and W. P. Webb.

HARBOR BILL ENDORSED BY COAST GROUP

Endorsement of the Newport harbor bill, the measure allowing cities to annex to adjoining counties and the one restricting purse sealing, was given by members of the Orange County Coast association at their monthly dinner meeting in the White House cafe, Laguna Beach, last night.

The finance and lateral roads committees promised reports at the next meeting. For the legislative committee, J. P. Greeley reported that the committee had voted to endorse the bill, permitting cities to annex to communities in adjoining counties. In explaining the particulars of the method to bring about this annexation, he said, it would be necessary to secure the signatures of 25 per cent of the voters at the last general election to bring it to a vote, and that a majority vote would then carry. He declared that the subdivision so annexed would still be a part of the original county for taxation purposes but would owe allegiance to the municipality of which it became a part for city improvements. This is senate bill No. 248. The committee placed its approval on the purse sealing bill.

The committee approved senate bill No. 5, the Newport harbor district bill. In commenting on the provisions of this bill, Greeley said that it called for the formation of a district with its borders conforming to the boundaries of Orange county, that it carried a provision that the commission, appointed that the commission, appointed turn over the returns of the bond sale to the state or the United States government to use should either be willing to co-operate in the improvement, and that the measure included a section making issuance of bonds possible by a majority. This was in line, he continued, with flood control bonds. The three bills were endorsed and the secretary instructed to forward letters stating the action to the proper parties.

Dr. F. C. Ferry, reporting on marine development, stated that 47,000 passengers had been carried in and out of the harbor in 1928 as well as over 2,000,000 pounds of fish. He said that 2,000,000 feet of lumber had been shipped by other means of transportation owing to the inability of shippers to secure insurance on account of the condition of the entrance.

Chairman N. E. West of the park and playgrounds committee reported meeting with the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce January 23 in connection with four-county participation in a state park program. He said that Los Angeles county favored the Santa Marguerita rancho. His report also showed that Mr. Olmstead favored three sites in Southern California, Malibu Beach, Laguna Beach and the Silver strand at San Diego, together with two lesser sites on the coast.

George Scherck of the publicity committee promised a definite report next meeting. The publicity fund was brought up to $2000 and Dr. F. W. Silbaugh, of Santa Ana, suggested that it might be used to the best advantage through the county publicity committee.

S. H. Woodruff emphasized the fact that Dana Point and San Clemente are now engaged in laying the 56-foot pavement which he said will soon be finished along the coast highway through the county. The secretary was instructed to communicate to the state highway commissioners that this is being done so that all work on bridge crossings and approaches will be constructed with that in mind.

W. D. Miller, of Seal Beach, requested that the secretary write

WAIVES EXAM ON FORGERY CHARGE

Thomas J. Wood, 38, cook, of 725 West Tenth place, Los Angeles, arrested here several days ago by Herman Zabel on a charge of passing a check for $60 to H. C. Collins, French street, Santa Ana, was charged with forgery yesterday and waived his preliminary examination in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court, being held to the superior court.

The forgery charge was instituted when it was learned that Wood, according to Zabel, picked a name at random to sign to the check and accidentally picked the name of a depositor in the bank on which the check was drawn. The depositor's name is J. C. Smith.

According to Zabel, this made the asserted crime a felony. The check was on a Los Angeles bank.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY MAI COCHRAN — PICTURES BY KNICK

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The Trouble Tots and Tinymites had known a lot of other frights, but now they all were more scared than they'd ever been before. The basket they were riding in was very big, but rather thin. They knew that it would sink and wondered just what was in store.

Said Clowzy, "We are faring bad, and as for me, I'll be real glad if we just have a break of luck and soon get out of this. To ride this basket was insane. I'll never do things like that again. You may call this a thrill, but it's a thing I'd gladly miss."

"Oh, shucks," said Scouty, "please take note that we are safe and still afloat. You're always crying o'er spilt milk. Now, what good does that do? The rest of us are in for fun, and there is heaps beneath the sun. If just one little thing goes wrong we do not wall like you."

Poor Clowzy hushed up right away. There wasn't much that he could say. So everyone kept quiet while the basket drifted slow. A wave came rolling from far back, and hit the basket with a smack. It swamped the bunch, and Clowzy cried, "I told you. Here we go!" And he was right as he could be. The whole bunch flopped into the sea.

The basket promptly sank from sight, and left the bunch to swim. Brave Scouty then began to roar. Don't give up hope. Strike out for shore. We all have had a lot of rest, and ought to feel in trim."

It was a rather funny sight to see them swim with all their might. One Tiny set a speedy pace, and toward the shore they went. Just when the land was within reach, they saw the Sea Man on the beach. "Ha, ha," said he, "Look what you got for being pleasure bent."

(The bunch dry their clothes in the next story.)

Gas in the Stomach Is Dangerous

Recommends Daily Use of Bisurated Magnesia to Overcome Trouble Caused by Acid Indigestion

Gas in the stomach accompanied by a full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion."

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful or four tablets in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and bloated right out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no sourness or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never in liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.—Adv.

When you read The Register you get the best service on local, county, state and national sports, the field being entirely covered by competent writers and well-trained staff correspondents.

Q Billy Evans, Henry L. Farrell, Frank Getty, Robert Edgren, George Kirksey and Davis J. Walsh are just a few of the sports experts who contribute regularly to The Register.

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

Joe McCarthy says the Giants and the Pirates are going to give his Cubs the toughest fight... And that he wasn't after Lester Bell of the Braves... Jack Hendricks says that Kelly and Pipp are one too many first basemen for the Reds... And that he would like to get someone for Pipp... "Mickey" Cochrane, the A's catcher, has been knocking the market dead... And would mind quitting baseball... He wants plenty more dough from Connie Mack... Earl Sande can ride his own horses in Maryland... And that's more than the Prince of Wales can do at Mowbray.

TEX COULD MAKE HIM

Der Herr Max Schmelling, with all the pleasant publicity that has fallen on him would have been a natural for the exploitation of the good old Rickard process.

Rickard always had his agents scouting the field for foreign fighters with a lot of color and his two greatest shows were put over largely by the colorful personalities of Georges Carpentier and Luis Angel Firpo.

The customers had been warned expertly and generously that neither the Frenchman nor the South American had much of a chance against Dempsey, but it isn't recalled that many kicked about the value they received for their money.

There was only one big thrill in the Dempsey-Carpentier fight and it was supplied by the one right-hand punch that the Frenchman landed on the champion, a punch which made Dempsey made and hastened Carpentier's end.

The Dempsey-Firpo fight, of course, was perhaps the most exciting fight in history and it was the foreigner in this fight who furnished the real big moment of the evening when he blasted the champion clear out of the ring.

GET THE KING THERE

After he had demonstrated to the American public that there was practically nothing in the way of prize fight promotion that he couldn't accomplish, he dreamed of staging a fight in one of the big European cities.

"I'd like to put on a big show in Paris or Berlin," he confided to the writers for or five years ago. "Exchange is all against it now and they knife off your whole hide in taxes."

"I'd rather do something in London. They have a club over there where all the dukes and the lords go in their soup-to-fish to see terrible fighters. If they had one good fighter I could get Dempsey over there and show 'em a real show. I bet I could even get the king there to watch it."

WATCH HIM, JOE!
The Schmelling fellow has about two dozen managers and at least one of them, little Joe Jacobs, is a smart manager. Schmelling ought to do well with Joe because he won't be rushed into any bad matches.

The German is primarily a counter puncher and there are any number of fighters around the country who could make him look not so good by waiting back to counter him.

Paulino and Heeneey are two of the very few prominent fighters who will risk ahead and Schmelling might do very well indeed against them. He could certainly get some swell publicity if he beat either one or both of them, and they are both ready to be taken.

If Godfrey ruined Risko by the beating he gave him, Paulino didn't derive any benefit from the punching he took from the giant Negro, and the beating that Heeneey took from Tunney certainly didn't do him any good.

GYMNASTIC CHAMPS TO APPEAR AT H. B.

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Feb. 15.—Glen Barry, winner of the Olympic championship in apparatus work, will be the attraction at the high school circus to be held in the school auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock. The world champion amateur tumbling team and 14 star athletes of the Los Angeles Athletic club also will entertain.

Several tumbling acts and novelty stunts have been arranged by Coach Harry Sheue, while the Misses Proshasky and Morrell have arranged dance stunts by the girls.

In addition there will be several comedy acts, "wild animals," clowns, dancing girls, an orchestra and other comic features to please the children.

CHAVEZ, TEGNOVITZ CAMPS CONFIDENT Tustin-Fullerton Game Decides Hoop Title

'REDS' BEST ON PAPER: LICKED FARMERS ONCE

ORANGE LEAGUE STANDINGS

Team	W.	L.	Pct.

Fullerton	1	1	.500
Orange	1	1	.500
Anaheim	1	1	.500
Excelsior	1	1	.500
Huntington Beach	1	1	.500

Tustin high school's first real championship "shot" and the biggest thing athletically that has ever happened to the peppy little institution next door is on tonight's sporting card.

The Tustin basketball squad, having waded through the still waters of the small fry, meets the "Big Red Team" of Fullerton high school in a contest at Tustin that virtually decides the Orange league championship. With seven victories and one defeat in their eight conference starts, the rivals will go to the post with exactly the same percentage.

Three Games on Card

Three games are on the program, the first between the Tustin and Fullerton Class D quintets, the second between the Class B fives and the third, beginning about 8:15, between the Class A teams. Several hundred of the almost 1000 seats in the Tustin gymnasium have been reserved. Indications are that a capacity crowd will witness the combat.

All past performances portend a Fullerton victory. The Indians have made considerably more points than Tustin and have had fewer points scored against them. On top of that they outclassed the Farmers when the teams met at Fullerton a month ago when the score was 35 to 12. This game, however, can be thrown out of the reckoning because the inexperienced Tustinites were suffering from stage fright and lost all sense of direction in the second half after they had made a ball game out of the first two quarters. The unusually large Fullerton floor also militated against their chances, it was believed.

Orange Is Stumbling Block
Fullerton has run up big scores on all its opponents with the peculiar exception of Orange which handed the "Big Red Team" its only defeat one time and was beaten by a single point the other.

Coach Bill Cole intimated that he will start "Red" Thiery and "Spud" Cochran at forward, Emmett Seacord at center and Don Smith and Harry Holmes at guard. Fullerton is expected to come on with Vaughn and Pickens at forward, Carpenter at center, and Captain Herschberger and Stull at guard.

The season's records for the two teams follow:

FULLERTON PRIMED FOR TUSTIN INVASION

FULLERTON, Feb. 15.—With the championship of the Orange league at stake, the Fullerton Indians were primed today for the big game of the season on the Tustin floor tonight.

Although the locals won the first game with the Farmers by a fairly large score, the struggle is expected to be the toughest of the season. The Redshirts are not in the best of condition as Archie Carpenter, lanky center, is suffering with a crippled knee, although he probably will start. The rest of the squad, however, is in fine shape.

The starting lineup for Fullerton probably will be Vaughn and Pickens, forwards; Carpenter, center; Herschberger and Stull, Pietrotti or McElhaney, guards.

INTERESTED IN HOCKEY

Pacific coast colleges, including California and Southern California, are interested in establishing ice hockey as a varsity sport.

'Pepper' Off For Florida On Saturday

"Pepper Jimmy" Austin, veteran coach of the St. Louis Browns, will leave his home in Laguna Beach tomorrow to begin his twenty-first year in major league baseball.

Accompanied by Mrs. Austin, the venerable athlete will go to West Palm Beach, Fla., to open the training camp of the St. Louis club. Austin is now the dean of all major league "players," and 19 of his 21 seasons have been with the Browns.

George Blaesholder, of Garden Grove, sensational young right hand pitcher with the Browns, left Garden Grove earlier in the week by automobile. He and his wife were to drive to Tulsa, Okla., from where Blaesholder will travel by train to West Palm Beach.

SAINT MIDDLES CLEAR WAY FOR TITULAR GAME

The die was cast for Santa Ana high school's great little Class B basketball team today. A contest with San Diego here next week will make or break Coach Bill Cook's battling middleweights as champion of the Coast Preparatory league.

Playing a superior offensive and defensive brand in every quarter, the Saint "Bees" swept aside the only remaining obstacle—Alhambra—between them and a titular finale to a most successful season yesterday. The score was 29 to 8 and the issue never was in doubt after the first period.

At the outset, the Santa Anas, playing on a strange floor, found the Moor defense a stubborn one but one also that gave way, as have all others this season except Glendale, when Cook's cohorts hit their stride in the second quarter. Santa Ana led by the slender margin of two points going into this second period and came out with victory virtually assured when it made 14 points for an 18-2 lead at half-time.

Cook was willing to do a bit of experimenting in the last half, giving most of his substitutes a chance to parade their wares which they did to his satisfaction, even adding a few counters to the growing Saint total.

Asa Herren and "Rusty" Sullivan led the Santa Anas in attack, Herren contributing 14 points and Sullivan coming along with 8.

San Diego and Long Beach are tied with the Saints in percentage but the locals will win the title if they defeat San Diego, regardless of what Long Beach does in its windup with Whittier, because the Saints then would have beaten the team with which it was tied.

The lineup: (1) Alhambra Santa Ana (29) (2) Pure Sullivan (9) (3) F..... Grandon Linden (14) (4) F..... (5) Whitman Erbe (2) (6) F..... (7) Evans McChesney (1) (8) G..... Wiseman

Substitutions: Santa Ana—H. Higashi (2) for Sullivan, H. Smith for Herren, Chamberlain for Linden, Winslow for Erbe, K. Higashi for McChesney, Homan for H. Higashi, Thornhill for K. Higashi.

Alhambra—Grant (2) for Whitman, Paul for Evans, Disbrow for Grant.

Score By Quarters
Santa Ana.....4 14 8 2—29
Alhambra.....2 0 4 2—8

A'S, YANKS TO PLAY LAST GAME OF YEAR

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The world champion New York Yankees will open the 1929 American league baseball season on their home field here, meeting Boston in the opening game, April 16, according to the official schedule released for publication today.

Other opening games will see the Philadelphia Athletics at Washington, Detroit at Cleveland and Chicago at St. Louis.

An interesting bit of information contained in the season's program is the fact that the Athletics are scheduled to wind up their season at the Yankee stadium with a two-game series, October 5 and 6. The Yankees and Athletics are the pre-season favorites to fight it out for the pennant. Those two games may be highly significant.

PICK STANFORD TO WIN U. S. TRACK TITLE

Coach "Dink" Templeton's Stanford track squad won the National Intercollegiate title the past two seasons and his men are prohibitive favorites, even at this early date, to repeat this year. Four outstanding performers for the Cardinals are Ross Nichols, captain and hurdler; Harlow Rotherth and Eric Krenz, weight men, and Ward Edmonds, pole vaulter. They are shown here with their noted coach, who went to grammar school in Santa Ana. Captain Nichols lives at Huntington Beach.

ALHAMBRA FIVE INVADERS SAINT COURT TONIGHT

A vastly improved Santa Ana high school basketball team will mix with as vastly an improved Alhambra quintet in Andrews gymnasium here tonight in the next to last Coast Preparatory league court tiff of the season. Starting time will be 8:30 o'clock.

These two schools, always the "weak sisters" of the conference in basketball, began their seasons in the usual losing fashion but have been showing such a change in front lately that a close, interesting skirmish is certain.

The Moors came through with a brilliant 26-13 win over the Glendale Dynamiters last week and will take the floor with a shade the better of the dope as well as percentage, having won two of their five contests while the Saints were being content with one out of five. Santa Ana's victory was also scored at the expense of Glendale, 30 to 19.

Captain Curt Yonel, the league's leading point-maker despite the lowly position of his five, and Leo Gaspar probably will start at forward for Santa Ana. Maxon Stull will be at center and Harold Long and Jack Bender at guard. Byram Armour, Wayne Vance and Warren DuBois also are likely to see action.

Coach Clyde Patton is expected to order his players to employ a short passing attack close to the basket. This system has been used with success in the last two weeks.

Either before the game or at half-time four of Coach "Tex" Oliver's wrestlers will engage in exhibition matches. Harvey Greenleaf will grapple with Roy De Smet and Glenn Hartman will meet Jack Fredericks.

SAINT 'CEES' WIND UP SEASON TONIGHT

Coach Clyde Cook's Santa Ana Class C quintet will complete its league schedule in a preliminary game tonight with the Alhambra midge, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The "Little Angels" have won their last two starts and hope to end their season with a win so they will have a .500 average in six contests. Captain Billy Gibbs and Larry Lane are expected to play forward, Adair Rucker center and Duane Rowland and Chet Dugger guards.

San Clemente Ball Club Will Disband

SAN CLEMENTE, Feb. 15.—The San Clemente Dons will disband after two more games, one next Sunday with the Los Angeles Town team and the other the following Saturday with the Seattle club of the Pacific Coast league which opens training here Monday. This was the announcement today of Frank Holborow, manager.

Paavo Nurmi Will Run In Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 15.—Paavo Nurmi, "phantom Finn," will appear in the Los Angeles Coliseum March 23 in an effort to break his world's record of 4:10 2-5 for the mile run. It was announced today by officials of the Los Angeles Athletic club, under whose auspices he will run.

An invitation has been extended to Percy Williams, youthful Canadian star, to race Charley Borah, U. S. C. sprinter, in special 100 and 22-yard dashes.

BABY JOE GANS AND FIELDS IN CLASH TONIGHT

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Welterweights will hold the spotlight at Madison Square Garden tonight when Baby Joe Gans and Jackie Fields meet in the feature 10-round event of the evening's program.

Fields is ruling a slight favorite over the Baby. In a previous match on the coast he outpointed Gans.

Fields has looked impressive in workout and if he carries the same form into the fighting ring that he displays in practice, critics predict an uncomfortable evening for Gans.

Baby Joe is inclined to discredit the California victory of Fields, declaring he gave away five pounds and was not in form.

The winner of the bout is expected to make a strong call for a title bout with Joe Dundee, present champion of the welter division. Gans also hopes to fight both Dundee and Sammy Mandell, lightweight champion, declaring he can make the 135 pound limit with ease.

Ace Hudkins probably will meet the call, or Rene De Vos who lost to Hudkins recently in New York, may try to go the route with the champion. Twenty-round fights have been exceedingly rare in recent matches and that fact alone may help to promote interest.

Kennedy got an option on Walker's services from Jack Kearns, Mickey's manager. The promoter has until April 1 to raise $150,000. When that amount can be shown, Kearns and Walker will sign the more definite contract for the fight. One-third must be paid April 1.

Who is backing the fight is not known. Kennedy refuses to say but it is understood that George Winfield, Nevada capitalist, heads the syndicate.

Las Vegas is 10 hours from Los Angeles by automobile and seven by train. The arena there will seat 40,000 persons normally. In expectation of the crowd, it is reported that Hudkins and his brother have purchased some soda fountain and hot dog concessions in Las Vegas.

club heavyweight, who has moved in the circle of such as Armand Emanuel and Tony Fuenteb, and he ought to take K. O. Brown, his assignment tonight, in stride. Brown, however, is said to be a dangerous puncher and a good straight hitter will always have a chance with Frazier, who sometimes fights wide open.

There will be the usual flock of four preliminaries and most of the participants are known locally. Jesse Ayala, who lost a close one at Wilmington Wednesday, goes on with the tough Kid O'Brien. Melvin Bobo, whose antics put the house in good mood two weeks ago, boxes the always popular Ascencio Hernandez. Walter Long is bracketed with Roxie Tremont, the latter a new one. Ned ("Shorty") Herman, who has a way of winning bouts and crowds, opens the show against Morris Tafola.

Fistic Champion
Adopts Little Boy

SEATTLE, Feb. 15.—Tod Morgan, junior lightweight boxing champion of the world, was a father today.

Morgan went into the courthouse and emerged with his new title when he adopted Billie, four-year-old son of Mrs. Morgan, former Arca, Calif., girl.

If ever two birds were killed with one stone, Georges Carpentier accomplished that feat in 1920 when he made an exhibition tour of America which averaged him $10,000 a week and also served as a honeymoon.

This picture, taken eight years back, shows the bride and groom on their arrival in this country on the French liner La Savoie, and the groom's manager.

On the left is Georges Georges, the Orchid Man, who at that time was the idol of French fistic circles. The lady is Madame Carpentier, then a bride of a few days. On the right is Francois Desamps, clever little manager, who was reputed to have an hypnotic eye.

During his tour, Georges, who seems to be smiling in anticipation of the golden flow to come, never took a bigger chance than he did at that famous international club dinner at the Commodore Hotel in New York, when he boxed Major Anthony Drexell Biddle—both decked out in evening clothes.

And how the first violins of society turned out to that dinner. Admirals, generals, majors and governors; foreign ambassadors, judges and whatnot sat at the festive board singing and talking the praises of the famous French fighter. When one looks back upon the scene it is almost unbelievable.

No student of fisticuffs ever enjoyed a tour more than Carpentier did that one. In a private car with his own chef, waiters, sleeping apartments and bath, the same car used by President Wilson later, the Frenchman and his bride spent a Utopian honeymoon and did not, you can be sure, experience any sadness in collecting thousands of American dollars.

Sacramento Club
Begins Training

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 15.—Members of the Sacramento Coast league baseball club left here today for spring training at Richardson Springs.

There were no holdouts on the team this year and a full quota will start tossing the ball around at the training grounds tomorrow. Today will be devoted to getting acquainted and seeing the country.

Griffiths, Lomski
Detroit Ring Foes

DETROIT, Feb. 15.—"Tuffy" Griffiths, Sioux City, and Leo Lomski, the "Aberdeen Assassin," meet here tonight in a 10-round go. Griffiths is expected to have a six pound weight advantage, weighing in around 176. About 16,000 spectators will attend the fight, which is expected to produce fireworks.

A'S STAND PAT
PRESSED YANKS

(This is the fifteenth of a series of articles by George Kirksey, analyzing the added strength of the 16 major league baseball teams. Tomorrow: the Cincinnati Reds—Sport Editor's note.)

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Connie Mack believes the ball club which finished two games behind the New York Yankees last season will be good enough to win the American league pennant this season.

Consequently, the Philadelphia Athletics' lineup will be practically the same as during the latter days of the 1928 race.

Only 27 players will be taken to the A's training camp at Fort Myers, Fla. Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker, who went South with the club last season, are the most important departures.

Southpaw pitching will figure prominently in Mack's strategy for the coming campaign. Despite the fact that the A's have two of the best left-handed pitchers in baseball in "Lefty" Grove and "Rube" Walberg, three of the seven new players are southpaw pitchers.

Yerkes May Be Regular

Carroll Yerkes, who was farmed out to Portland last season and recalled late in the year, has a place reserved for him on the Philadelphia pitching corps. He pitched the final game of the season for the A's, and although allowing only five hits, was beaten, 1 to 0. He won 11 and lost 11 with Portland. He is 25 years old and has been pitching professionally only three seasons.

Two former St. Louis Browns, Stewart Bolen and Ernie Wingard, are the other new southpaws. Bolen won 20 games and lost 15 for Baltimore last season, pitching 22 complete games and striking out 157 batters. Wingard, a former University of Alabama star, won 24 games and lost 16 for Milwaukee last season. Bolen and Wingard are the same age, 26.

The other pitching addition is Bill Shores, a young right-hander, who was headed for a regular berth a year ago when he injured his pitching arm.

Six Veteran Heavies

The veteran pitchers include Grove, Walberg, Ernsbaw, Ehmske, Quinn and Rommel.

"Mickey" Cochrane, voted the most valuable player in the league last season, and Ralph Perkins will take care of the catching. The infield lineup probably will be: Foxx at first, Bishop at second, Boley at short, Hale or Dykes at third. If Mack decides to use Orwoll at first, Foxx probably will be used at third. Joe Hassler also will be available.

Orwoll, listed as a pitcher on the Philadelphia roster, is likely to be used in the outfield or at first base because of his batting skill.

Al Simmons, "Mule" Haas and "Bing" Miller have first call in the outfield. Three new outfielders have been acquired. They are Homer Summa, who batted over .300 during his six years with the Indians; Nick Borelli, signed as a free agent, and Rodman Hume, the Southern Methodist football star.

ANAHEIM QUINTET
BEATS NEAL TEAM

Hawley's Sports and the J. and N. shop of Anaheim were still running neck and neck in the Santa Ana City Basketball league today following the narrow but nevertheless sufficient 31 to 29 victory of the Colonist quintet over the T. J. Neal Sports team at Anaheim last night. This completed the fourth week of play.

HAVE YOU SECURED YOUR

$1500<sup>00</sup>

LIFE INSURANCE POLICY

That Is Offered For

$5<sup>00</sup>?

The Policy Holders Life Insurance Association of Los Angeles issues a low-cost policy on male or female ages from 10 to 55 years, unrestricted as to residence, travel or place of death, without medical examination.

What Is This Insurance Plan?

The Oldest Form of Insurance Known
—Purely Mutual

Is plain old-fashioned life insurance, without frills. Leaves out such items as cash values, extended values, and paid-up insurance values, which represent such a large part of the premium of the usual investment form of life insurance, but which add nothing to the value of the policy to the insured at death.

Is sure protection, at cost. You make your savings in any of the various ways offered in this day and age which pay a higher rate of interest return than investment life insurance.

IS NON-MEDICAL, REQUIRING ONLY A STATEMENT
OF FIRST CLASS HEALTH and PHYSICAL CONDITION

Is incontestable from date of issue except for suicide first year or for fraud. It is free from restrictions as to residence, travel, occupation, place or manner of death.

Members are not liable for any debts of the Association. The only obligation is to pay the dues and Death Claims. Failure to pay such, lapses the insurance and terminates membership in the Association.

Is offered as additional low cost protection to those already carrying life insurance, and as a much needed form of protection to those who feel themselves unable to carry the higher priced forms of investment life insurance. Is heartily approved by bankers, professional and business men and women.

Can You Afford To Pass Up
This Opportunity?

Are your wife and family protected, or will they have to pay in sacrifice for your neglect? This announcement is of great importance to you—if you have a family—wife and little children—a mother grown old, or a father enfeebled by age.

It is an unpleasant thought but one that none of us can escape—if you have failed to provide for that great emergency that so often leaves families destitute and forces them immediately out into the world to find some way to meet their bills, before they have fully recovered from their altered condition.

If the unexpected should happen, wouldn't it be a splendid thing to leave them enough to safeguard their independence during that heart-breaking period of readjustment? So that she will not be broken down by the burden of debt that so often follows the blow of death. Why not bridge that gap now, in advance, for her sake?

S. A. Chamber To Aid Brea In Move For Dirigible Base

COUNTY FIRST CONSIDERATION RAYMER SAYS

BREA, Feb. 15.—Co-operation of both the Santa Ana and Placentia chambers of commerce through their secretaries, George Raymer and Thomas E. Pickerill, respectively, last night was pledged the Brea Chamber of Commerce in its effort to locate a government dirigible base near here, Pickerill, speaking also for H. H. Hale, president of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange County and chairman of the aeronautical committee of that body, declared that Placentia was 100 percent back of Brea in her laudable ambition to become the home of a great navy dirigible base on the Pacific coast.

A complete report of the findings of the industrial committee, of which O. S. Crowell is chairman, was made at last night's meeting. This included data on climatic conditions, light, transportation, electric power, gas supply, fuel oil and man power.

Army Planes Sighted
R. H. Lee cited the fact that several army planes have been flying in and out of Brea at low altitudes during the last few days and firmly believed, he said, that these planes were here for the purpose of securing such information on the proposed dirigible site as could be obtained from the air. He also stated that in a recent visit to North Island he had learned that that base has outgrown its present home and that it will be necessary soon to find new quarters for the "Los Angeles" dirigible.

In case the Graham-Loftus site is not chosen by the government for its navy dirigible base, Lee believes there is a strong possibility of the army department accepting the site. The committee believes that the work which is being done in attempting to secure the base will not be lost, even in event the government does not accept the site. Brea is being widely advertised by competing for the base and doubtless the attention of big industries has been drawn to the site proposed.

A communication from the Fullerton Chamber of Commerce assured the co-operation of that body while voicing the appreciation of the vast amount of work entailed in the efforts of the committee on the project.

Data Available
Raymer declared that the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce stood ready to submit to the Brea chamber any data that would assist its committee in the matter and was of the opinion that it is up to the county groups to get together on the project and secure the base for the county. His suggestion later was acted upon when it was voted to ask each chamber of commerce within the county to name a representative, or representatives, to work with the Brea committee from the standpoint of county interest, the first meeting to be held at some central place in the county within the next 10 days.

A resolution from the board of trustees of the Fullerton union district junior college was read where in it was declared the board was desirous of securing the co-operation of the Brea-Olinda union high school district and the Anaheim union high school district in the formation of a northern Orange county junior college district, there-

DOESN'T WANT HIGHER OFFICE

Even though her brother, General Bramwell Booth, finally may be deposed as world leader of the Salvation Army, Miss Evangeline Booth, American commander, says she will refuse election as his successor. She is shown here, left, shaking the hand of Colonel Muthiah, a delegate from Madras at the convention on the high council of the Salvation Army at Sunbury-on-Thames, England.

HIGH SCHOOL AND JAYSEE NOTES

Students of the Santa Ana city schools attended a special matinee in the West End theater this afternoon to see an educational film of travel and game hunting. "Major Hammond's Adventures on Land and Sea," depicting 15,000 miles of travel starting from the coast of Southern California to the interior of lower Mexico and then in the northwest section of Canada, was shown.

Inaugurating a new system of presenting assemblies for the students of the Santa Ana junior college, members of the Compton junior college will present a special assembly in the high school auditorium next Wednesday afternoon, according to an announcement made today by Willard White, Jaysee student body president. While the Compton entertainers are here, members of the Santa Ana institution will be presenting an exchange program in the Compton college. The program to be presented in Compton will include a one-act play by the college drama class and a comedy ventriloquist act, featuring Keith Trickey and Eddie Gerhardt.

Comedy nearly was turned to tragedy during the filming of the Santa Ana High School Movie club's motion picture yesterday when Paul Hendrickson, playing the role of "Reggie Blake," experienced a narrow escape from serious injury when the bicycle he was riding in a comic scene was nearly struck by a speeding car. Hendrickson was proceeding east on Fourth street, near Bristol, followed by a camera mounted on a truck, when a car sped onto the scene, missing the comedian by inches. Fortunately, the scene was incorporated in the filming of the picture and will make one of the thrilling episodes in the film.

WIFE UNTIDY IN HOME, ASSERTS HUSBAND'S SUIT

Coming home always was a rather unpleasant experience for Arthur F. White, he indicated today in a cross-complaint for divorce from Helen G. White.

On arriving home from his labors in the Brea oil fields, White was forced to make his way through an unswept and carelessly tended house, he said. In the kitchen a pile of unwashed dishes stared him in the face and often, if he still wanted his supper, he had to cook it for himself, his complaint stated. Mrs. White never bothered to put garbage in the receptacles provided, but simply tossed it into the back yard, the cross-complaint alleged. She usually slept until 10 or 11 a. m., leaving White and their young son to find breakfast as best they could, according to the cross-complaint, which stated that the boy often went to school without a morning meal, or with only fruit to eat.

The cross-complaint stated that the couple married in 1912 and separated in 1927, after a quarrel caused by White's refusal to leave his work and take his wife to baseball games and theaters in Los Angeles.

FORMER POST COMMANDERS GIVEN BADGES

More than 225 members of the Santa Ana post, American Legion, met last night in the Legion home, on Birch street, to honor former commanders of the post, who were presented with past commanders' badges.

The past commanders who received badges, in order of their service, were Dr. John Wehrly, M. B. Wellington, Maurice Enderle, Franklin Grouard, Ed McFadden, Wilbur Getty, George J. Scovel, J. W. Markel and Charles Van Wyk. Dinner was served at 6:30 p. m. The entertainment for the evening was provided by Les Shrader and his band from the Yost theater and two acts of vaudeville from the West Coast-Walker theater.

Superior Judge E. J. Marks addressed the post on the time of the war to the present day and presented the badges to the past commanders. Mrs. Morris Cain, president of the auxiliary of the post, aided in presenting the badges.

Announcement was made that the twenty-first district dance and entertainment, to be held in the Norconian club, near Corona, on February 23, would draw a large number of Legionnaires from Santa Ana. Tickets can be secured from Ed Kolbe, post adjutant.

ORANGE COUNTY ORANGES

The Orange county exhibit at the National Orange show, in San Bernardino, occupies a commanding position near the front entrance. The display is attractive, representing, as it does, an old Grecian castle, with stately columns and pretty exterior decorations. The front is done mostly in oranges. The Orange county coat line is depicted at the sloping roof at the back, the outlines being made in colors. Below is a front view of the display.

OWNERS OF GAS STATIONS HERE ARE ORGANIZED

Permanent organization of Santa Ana service station owners will be perfected at a meeting on Thursday night of next week, it was indicated today, following a meeting in Ketter's cafe, yesterday, at which temporary organization was effected.

W. B. Martin was appointed temporary chairman and John Dowling, William Pagenkopp, George Platt and Paul Witmer were appointed a committee to draw up a code of ethics.

It was pointed out that while the organization is being created primarily for the purpose of becoming a unit of the Santa Ana Business Men's association so that the members may avail themselves of the services of that association, the station owners organization also will deal with problems confronting the independent retailers of gasoline and oils.

R. Earl Ruddy, secretary-manager of the Business Men's association, was present and explained various features of the service the association is in position to give its members.

Nineteenth Annual Orange Show Gets Under Way In San Bernardino

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif., Feb. 15.—The National Orange show, with representation from practically every city in the California citrus area, today had entered upon its nineteenth annual exhibition here.

Decorative themes from the ancient Greek mythology predominated throughout the main exhibits, with nearly every community in Southern California vying with one another in the displays illustrative of the $150,000,000 citrus crop of this section.

At the opening ceremonies, last night, Gov. C. C. Young delivered the principal address. He presented the diamond-set medal, annually awarded to the champion orange grower, to George C. Roeding, of Fresno, and a similar one to Ernest R. Mueller, of Etiwanda, who was selected as the best producer of lemons.

Dolores Del Rio, patroness of the exhibition, will arrive tomorrow to preside over festivities.

More than 5,000,000 pieces of citrus fruit are used in the various displays, many of which are constructed entirely of oranges and lemons.

At least 300,000 persons are expected to attend the exhibition before it closes, on February 24, officials of the show said.

Bridge Luncheon

The hospitable home of Mrs. L. L. Beeman of 920 French street was the scene yesterday of one of the month's most delightful parties when Mrs. Beeman, Mrs. George Smith and Mrs. Grace Zaiser entertained half an hour of friends at luncheon.

Pointsettias from the Beeman garden, in lovely tones of red, and cottonseed were used in profusion throughout the home and the same gay colors were carried out in table appointments.

The hostesses were assisted throughout the afternoon in their pleasant duties by Mrs. Helen Hill, Miss Margaret Orr, Mrs. Clarence Skiles, Mrs. George Gunther and Mrs. W. L. Bullard.

The adding of bridge scores gave Mrs. W. L. Deimling high and Mrs. W. B. Williams second high and each one received a bit of pottery as did Mrs. L. M. Smith who was low. Mrs. W. S. Sheppard of San Bernardino received the guest prize.

Out of town guests at the affair included Mrs. G. A. Atwood, Mrs. H. M. Barton, Mrs. James Fleming, Mrs. R. S. Garner, Mrs. Steele Forsythe, Miss Nona Harbison, Mrs. C. Hutchison, Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mrs. A. K. Johnson, Mrs. O. C. Rogers, Mrs. Phillip Savage, Mrs. William Savage, Mrs. W. S. Sheppard, Mrs. T. E. Smother, Mrs. F. P. Phillips, Mrs. R. D. McCook, and Miss Winifred Martin, all of San Bernardino, and Mrs. Fred Doolittle and Mrs. S. W. McNable of Los Angeles.

McKinley Teachers Are Guests of Honor
At Party

Members of the executive board of the McKinley P.-T. A. were hostesses one night this week at a merry party held for the teachers of the school. The affair was unique in that the members of the board played the part of escorts as each one called for one of the teachers and brought her to the school for the party.

Valentine decorations added to the cheery atmosphere of the kindergarten room where the women had gathered and the evening passed quickly as several entertaining games were enjoyed. The evening's program had been planned by Mrs. T. H. Lacy and Mrs. L. N. Pearson.

Teachers who were present included Miss Mary Andrews, Miss Henrietta Chase, Miss Artie Cleveland, Miss Olive Gilbert, Miss Emma Hastly, Miss Beryl Hatch, Miss Clarice Marx, Miss Velma Miller, Miss Ethelyn Peterson, Miss Edith Plavan, and Miss Gertrude Potts.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH IS LOVELY SETTING FOR WEDDING

No more beautiful setting for a wedding could be desired than the First Congregational church with its altar banked with feathery fern and stately palm which made an excellent foil for graceful baskets of peach blossoms. It was in such a setting that Miss Olive Goodman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Goodman, and Roy C. Kidder, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Kidder, plighted their troth last night with the solemn marriage vows of the Congregational church read by the Rev. John Schafeley of Los Angeles.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Louise Shirley of Wilmington presiding at the organ, played Carrie Jacobs Bond's always lovely "I Love You Truly" and accompanied Miss Sara Hales who sang "Because" and "At Dawning" by Cadman.

As the first strains of Lohengrin were heard the Rev. Mr. Schafeley and Mr. Kidder and his best man, Don Grells, took their places in front of the altar and awaited the coming of the bride who entered the church on the arm of her father who later gave her in marriage.

Miss Goodman's wedding gown of Duchesse satin with its snug bodice and sweeping skirt and her misty lace veil worn capwise added to her brunet charm. She carried a bouquet of pale pink rosebuds and lilies of the valley.

Miss Virginia Berry, as maid of honor, was becomingly gowned in pink taffeta that reached to her ankles and she carried pink rosebuds.

The bridesmaids, Miss Anne Tarver in orchid, Miss Alyce Majors in yellow, Miss Levinia O'Toole in golden green, and Miss Edith Burckett in apple green, wore pretty taffeta frocks with snug bodices and a single flounce reaching to their ankles and each carried pink sweet peas and maiden hair fern.

Pretty little Miss Nancy Feinberger as flower girl, scattered rose petals in the path of the bride.

The ushers included Dick Ewert, Tevis Westgate, Lee McCullah and Herbert Hill.

Following the wedding a reception cake was held at Santa Ana Country club which had been decorated for the occasion with a profusion of spring flowers that had been arranged by Mrs. A. G. Flagg for the occasion.

During the reception, when dainty wedding ices and cake were served by a group of the bride's sorority sisters, a series of lovely musical selections were presented by the Fadette string trio, directed by Mrs. Shirley.

The bride cut the beautiful wedding cake that occupied a table where tall candelabra glowed and dainty vases nodded from crystal vases.

Following the reception the pretty bride donned a smart ensemble for a honeymoon trip to San Francisco that followed a merry party held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Kidder at the Biltmore hotel in Los Angeles last night. The affair had been planned by Don Grells, Mr. Kidder's best man.

On their return the young people will live in Anaheim while they complete plans for a new home to be built in Fullerton where Mr. Kidder is manager of a store owned by Mr. Goodman. Mr. Kidder and his bride are well known in Santa Ana as they are both graduates of the local high school and have lived here most of their lives.

J. C. Bachelors Elect
Officers at Jolly
Meeting

The election of second semester officers for the junior college Bachelors' club placed George Tobias, former president of the associated students in the supreme position of grand exalted, when that club met last night at the home of their new chief in Garden Grove.

Other offices filled by the election were senior exalted, Gerald Edwards; junior college exalted, Edwin Gerhardt; keeper of the writ, Rodney Smiley; keeper of the purse, Lawrence Hogue; member at large, Charles Spotts; bachelor bouncer, George Butler.

That the early hours of Saturday morning will witness the initiation of the new pledges of the club was the decision of those who have already become members. The past week at the college has been known in Bachelor circles as "Hell Week," a time just preceding the initiation of pledges. During that week pledges have inflicted upon them all manner of embarrassing demands by the members of the club. Much amusement was afforded students of the college recently, when the pledges arrived at the college dressed in grotesque costumes.

Saturday, February 23, has been designated as the date for the annual Bachelors ball, an occasion anticipated by considerable fluttering of hearts on the part of the feminine members of the college.

Musical Evening Has Enjoyable Social Features

Combining an interesting musical event with the friendly hospitality of an evening "at home," Madame Leontine Redon, well-known voice teacher of Santa Ana and Los Angeles, greeted some forty guests last night in the charming Adolph Tannenbaum home at 2408 Santiago street.

Mrs. Redon has a flourishing class here, and last night's hospitality was designed to offer the parents of her vocal pupils, an opportunity to judge for themselves of what is being accomplished. Early plans were to hold the musicale in the studio in the Greenleaf building, but Mrs. Tannenbaum's generous offer of her home as a setting, was later accepted. There two large rooms were thrown together, with the grand piano placed at one end, giving a spacious and delightful music room.

Program features were presented most informally, and were preceded by a little talk by Mrs. Redon on her aims and ideals in connection with her pupils and their training. Miss Beatrice Granas opened the musical program with a piano number, choosing a Chopin Etude. Miss Granas is a pupil of Earl Fraser.

Little Miss Ruth Baker sang a "Slumber Song" and "The Big Brown Bear" while in entirely different mood was Miss Helen Gillogly's selection, "Song of Songs." Miss Gillogly is from Orange, and Mrs. William Gelsler, the final soloist of the first part of the evening, was from Los Angeles. Her numbers were "In Italy," "Wake Up," and "Rain."

After the intermission and its lively chat and friendly congratulations offered the hostess-teacher, Miss Helen Tannenbaum, a violin pupil of Joseph Borissoff of Los Angeles, played two violin selections, "Cavalier Violin" by Kreisler, and Schubert's "The Bee." Mrs. Edwards of Fullerton followed with a group of German and French songs including one in English, "The Muletier."

Mrs. Margaret Tannenbaum chose Delia's "Villanelle," "Retreat" by LaForge, and "Birth of Morn." A sacred number, "The Lord is My Light," sung by Anna McCormick, added variety to the program, and was followed by "Just a Wearying For You" by the soloist, Miss Beatrice Granas, played a second Chopin composition and Sally Lee Seales closed the delightful program with Arditi's "Joy."

In complimenting Mrs. Redon on the pleasure and success of the evening, the guests also included Miss Ruth Armstrong whose accompanying was of its usual high order of sympathy and faultlessness.

To add the final touch of charming hospitality, the hostess served light refreshments upon the snowy tablecloth. The dessert course of the delicious luncheon also carried out the Valentine motif as ices resembled hearts.

The afternoon was spent in playing hearts and prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas Ham and Mrs. Edgar Brannan.

Those enjoying the affair with Mrs. Kays were Mrs. Edgar Brannan, Mrs. Harry Warner, Mrs. Arthur Anderson, Mrs. John Sauer, Mrs. Arthur Koepsel, Mrs. Thomas Ham, and Mrs. G. G. Reif.

Miss Carol Erskine is Hostess to Members of Bridge Club

Miss Carol Erskine entertained the Entre Nous club last night at the home of her sister, Mrs. William Killingbeck with a charming Valentine party.

Bridge was played during the evening and high score was won by Miss Henrietta Lykke, while Miss Monta Currie was low. Each received an attractive gift daintily wrapped in red and white.

Delicious supper was served at the tables that carried out the Valentine motif in favors and nut cups.

Guests were the Misses Dorothy Beckman, Mable Pruitt, Hattie Belle Wall, Adela Lutz, Stella Graham, Blanch Yokum, Monta Currie, Amy Smith, Louise Germann, Henrietta Lykke, Carol Erskine, and Mrs. Genevieve Fisher.

Appointments For Ebell Card Party Are Clever

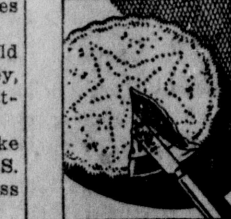

Yesterday afternoon's bridge party at the Ebell clubhouse was presided over by Mrs. Herbert Krahling, Mrs. Roy Langley and Miss Beulah May and the clever appointments for the affair carried out the Valentine motif. Graceful pointsettias were arranged about the lounge where the card games were in progress and tallies bespoke the season of hearts.

Mrs. M. D. Borgmeyer, who held high score, and Mrs. E. M. Nealley, who was second high, received attractive gifts.

The next card party will take place February 27 and Mrs. C. S. Dumphy will head the hostess committee.

Famous food scientist
urges sugar in diet

"Make your foods more palatable," he suggests

Another thing, it is wholesome. Another thing, it is inexpensive. This famous man has his it. Sugar is perfection in sweetness. It is the ideal flavor—also a food.

Think of how good foods are made delightful to the taste by the addition of sugar. What could be better for us than grapefruit, apple sauce, cranberry sauce, baked apples or stewed dried fruits of all kinds, fresh or canned berry pies, cereals, jellies and jams? All of these are examples of excellent foods full of minerals, vitamins and other health elements made delightful to the taste by the addition of sugar.

Sugar in connection with cocoa or chocolate can make milk into a delicious beverage for thousands of children and adults, who find milk more tasteful when sweetened. The flavors of nearly all vegetables are improved in the cooking by the addition of sugar.

There is no substitute for sugar in good cookery. The sugar way is the happy way. The Sugar Institute.

Eugene Olsen Wins Role
Of "Thomas Bates" In High School Play

Eugene Olsen, popular senior student at the Santa Ana high school, was chosen today to play the leading role of "Thomas Bates" in the senior play, "New Brooms," according to Ernest Crozier Phillips, instructor in drama who will direct the production.

The young man will interpret the role made famous by Robert McWade, one of America's most beloved actors, and he will be surrounded by a cast comprised of the finest dramatic talent in the high school, Phillips stated.

Mary Stanton, already well known in local dramatic circles, will portray the role of "Geraldine Marshe" which was made famous by Elsie Ferguson.

Betty Maloney has been selected for the role of "Ethel Bates," while David Hill will enact the part of "Thomas Bates, Jr." "Mr. Kneeland" will be interpreted by Stanley Hardin, and the part of "Wally Nowell" will be taken by Ed Connor.

Other parts cast included Marlon Parsons as "Marguerite," the maid; Francis Flynn as "Dr. Philip Dow," the butler; Edward Meador as "Simpson," and Leroy Arnold as "Nelson."

"New Brooms" was one of the most popular plays of the past decade, and is based on the affairs of a crusty old millionaire and the chance in his life after the intervention of a beautiful homeless girl who is in love with his son.

Experience In Italy
Are Described By
Mrs. Marsden

Members of the Santa Ana University Women's club were disappointed last night when they gathered at Ebell clubhouse to learn that because of a cold, Margherita Marsden would be unable to present the program of Italian folk songs that had been planned as the evening's entertainment.

Before the evening was over, however, they were completely reconciled because Mrs. Marsden gave a most entertaining and delightful talk on her experiences as a music student in Italy. Preceding her talk she presented two of her talented young pupils, little Miss Joan Hockaday, who gave several pianologues, and Miss Martha Nuls who gave a reading, "A New Story of Lincoln," and two pianologues.

In her charming talk, Mrs. Marsden told of learning the Italian language from the woman in charge of her boarding house in Milan and of her studies under the maestro, Angelo Parola.

Especially interesting was the account of her debut when she played the role of Rustiana in the opera, "Cavalleria Rusticana," that was presented as a Fascist benefit.

Mrs. Marsden told how she learned the Italian folk songs from a street singer in Milan and a dancing girl in Naples. She learned the Italian wedding song when she attended a wedding in the Italian Alps.

At a short business meeting, the University Women, announced plans for a dinner meeting to be held March 14 at the clubhouse. A program for the occasion will be presented by Mrs. Edith Thatcher.

Dorealis Club Enjoys
Valentine Party at Gray Home

Mr. and Mrs. William Gray were hosts last night at a Valentine bridge party held at their hospitable home, 614 South Sycamore street, for members of the Dorealis club which has just been organized by a group of friends who enjoy an occasional evening of bridge together.

At last night's affair Mr. and Mrs. Buck Flippo scored high and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Nicky Jr. were low, each one receiving an attractive gift.

Those present for the affair included Mr. and Mrs. Buck Flippo, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis White, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Nicky Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Gray and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brown of Laguna Beach who substituted for Mr. and Mrs. George Waltmeyer.

Ebell Lecturer Will Give New Picture
Of Pan-America

Believing that the future of American trade and investment lies in Latin America, Edward Tomlinson, scheduled to appear before the women of Santa Ana Ebelle society next Monday afternoon, is well qualified to speak with authority on subjects connected with South America, for he has given years of study to that country and its problems and relations.

"What South America Means To Us," announced as his lecture subject for Monday afternoon, will give him opportunity to elucidate his ideas and beliefs for the information of the clubwomen, who are anticipating the lecture as one of the leading event of their year of work and study.

According to this distinguished young writer, traveler and student, is not the land of wild Indians, head hunters and revolutions that it is pictured by the average dweller in northern climes. There are Indians indeed, he declares, but they are in the remote fastnesses of the jungles of the Amazon. Head hunters have become as extinct as the dodo, while the revolutions have been greatly over-emphasized.

Instead of these features, he pictures South America as a land of broad and fertile plains, beautiful cities, limitless resources and a high degree of culture. His powers of analysis have been developed through his education as well as by his travels. His first schooling was in his native South, with post-graduate work at Edinburgh university. During the World war, he served in France with the famous 52nd division, and was chosen as special lecturer to the British troops, for which he received an official citation.

Mrs. I. W. Bouldin was complimented yesterday at a pretty Valentine party held for her as a surprise at her home on Garfield street. The delightful affair was planned by her grand niece, Mrs. Lottie Nelson of Orange.

Baskets of jonquils and hyacinths were used in decorating the home for the occasion and happy indeed was the afternoon as music and conversation whirled away the hours.

Those present included Mrs. I. W. Bouldin, Mrs. W. I. Ridgeway, Mrs. W. H. Kuhn, Mrs. James Farrage, of Santa Ana, and Mrs. T. Reese, Mrs. E. Johnston, Viola Johnston, Mrs. Lottie Nelson, and Donald Nelson.

Valentine Luncheon Is Given to Compliment
Past Presidents

Maintaining a valentine motif in every detail of their entertaining, Mrs. William H. Thomas and Mrs. Esther Gardner gave one of the prettiest luncheons of the season yesterday, in complimenting the Past Presidents' association of Daughters of Union Veterans.

The affair was held in the Thomas home at 425 West First street, and the two hostesses were gowned in white, with saucy little red heart aprons and red caps to embellish their costumes. The home was bright with Scotch heather and ferns combined with spring flowers. Luncheon tables were arranged in the living room, each one spread with a valentine cover and centered with red carnations. Such details as scarlet nut-cups, gay little place cards, and heart-moulded dessert aprons and red caps to embellish their costumes. ## The WOMAN'S DAY

by AILENE SUMNER

The secretary of labor is playing the role of grand arbitrator in one of these "fool women" quarrels. To be sure, he's too polite to call it that, but we can just imagine. The women's bureau of the department of labor recently finished a job of research on the effects of labor legislation upon the employment opportunities of women. The report was to the effect that such legislation helped rather than retarded woman's employment opportunities.

CLAIM REPORT BIASED
The National Woman's Party which, of course, represents special protective legislation for women, claiming that women lose jobs, cannot get jobs, and must take lower wages than men because of this so-called protective legislation, claims that the report was biased, being made by an organization which has always sponsored protective legislation and which, therefore, would not report any findings contrary to their own platform.

HOW ABOUT IT?
Well, how about it, all ye poor working girls, have you suffered or benefitted most from laws, or do they merely make you bless someone responsible for sanitary wash rooms, comfortable chairs, and shorter working days?

'NOTHER HOW
Here's another cute little row in the works. The United Restaurant Owners' association vigorously protests to the federal radio commission the permitting of cigarette propaganda on the air. The association calls the cigarette talks "a flagrant assault against public welfare, trying to transform the school girls, the country boys and the youth of the country into confirmed cigarette addicts, regardless of the established medical and health findings."

If, in the last page of the impassioned letter, the United Restaurant Owners' association did not remind us that it is especially dastardly for a nation-wide network to encourage cigarette smoking "as a substitute for wholesome food," one might believe their motives a bit more concerned with a whole-hearted zeal for public welfare than they probably are. In other words, it's pernicious to permit any firm to say "smoke" when the association would say "cut yourself a piece of cake."

"IF I WEREN'T MARRIED!"
Many married women pine and sigh for the things they might do if only they hadn't married! Mrs. Mary L. Lewis of Pittsburgh has built and sold 150 homes during the last 12 years, though she is a wife and mother of several children. She attends to every detail of the building from the attic to basement, explaining that her success is because, after all, homes are sold to women rather than men, and that she knows what women want for their money in a home.

But the real highlight of this

The MIXING BOWL

by ANN MEREDITH

TODAY'S RECIPE

DATE TORT

- 6 eggs—separate
- 2 cups sugar
- 1-2 pound dates, chopped
- 6 tablespoons bread crumbs
- 1 pound walnuts
- 1 teaspoon baking powder

This is one of those extra-special desserts which causes the family to rise up and call you blessed when you deign to serve it! Let me caution you to serve it following a meal that is deficient in energy-making foods.

First of all we'll shell the nuts, and the pound referred to is not after shelling but before. After they are ready, chop them fine and set aside while you—

Separate the eggs, beating the yolks creamy, slowly adding the sugar. The whites are beaten as stiff as possible and while finishing the beating the baking powder is mixed in. This part of the work should be left until the last thing though.

Stone the dates after washing, then cut in fine pieces. Combine the nuts, dates and bread crumbs with the yolk mixture, add a pinch of salt and fold in the beaten whites. Bake in a shallow buttered dish sitting in hot water for 20 or 30 minutes of very moderate heat—about 325 F. Serve as soon as cooked. Cream is not necessary.

About 2700 energy calories make up the total in the Date Tort and the portions are six or eight. This dessert would hardly be dietetically correct if served following a beefsteak dinner because of its high protein content (eggs and nuts) and for reason of its intensive energy units it should not be used success story is that instead of saying, "If I only had time and weren't married I'd build houses," she built 'em!

MORE HOUSE!
Just who owns the house, anyway? Husband or wife? This nice question was being asked by a New York gent who, trying to get into his home about 1 a.m. the other night, and finding the door locked, smashed a window and crawled in. His wife had him arrested for housebreaking. It is laughable, of course, but Nicholas Denise, the man, probably isn't the first man to wonder who owns the house, anyway. All too many wives have a habit of announcing what time the curfew rings and locking up, accordingly.

The Bidding: South bids no-trump and all pass.

Deciding the Play: West leads 5 of diamonds. How should declarer proceed to make game?

The Error: Declarer takes first trick with ace of diamonds and then finesses queen of clubs which is won by West with king of clubs, thus blocking the club suit and sacrificing game.

The Correct Method: Declarer should win the first trick with king of diamonds, then play ace of clubs and 9 of clubs overtaking with queen of clubs if king of clubs is not forced, continuing clubs until it is forced. The ace of diamonds now serves as the re-entry to make the remaining clubs and game cannot be prevented.

The Principle: When holding a suit headed by Queen-Jack-10 in dummy, and A-X in closed hand or vice versa, it is usually a winning play to capture the first trick.

POPULAR COMEDIAN IN NEW STAR ROLE

Establishing himself as a worthy candidate for the same honors in talking pictures that he has gained in the silent drama, Reginald Denny yesterday scored a success at the Yost Broadway theater in his first "talkie," "Red Hot Speed."

Denny's voice seems well adapted to the talking films, and Miss Day couples a charming voice with her engaging personality.

Another excellent stage show accompanies the feature film, in the "Black and Tan Revue" presented through the courtesy of Alexander Pantages. Devotees of dancing will find the numbers especially alluring, some of the best work being done by Nelson and Thatcher. Trick banjo playing, impersonations, tap dancing, the Varsity, and countless other entertainment features are included in the unique bill.

Of course Les Shrader and his band boys add to the general enjoyment in a bill so pleasing that E. D. Yost has been running a series of mid-week matinees.

WEST END
No feature that might enhance the mystery angle, seems to have been omitted from "The Haunted House," which is now on the bill at the West End theater.

In decided contrast but adding greatly to the interest of the bill, is the travel picture, Major Hammond's "Adventures on Land and Sea," which is guaranteed to set the blood dancing in the most hardened of veins and arteries.

JANNINGS FILM IS UP TO STANDARD

"You forget that you are watching a picture, and lose yourself in the life that Emil Jannings portrays," said the Blase Theater Goer with a sigh, as he rubbed his eyes in the sunlight yesterday after having watched "Sins of the Fathers" on the matinee bill at the Walker theater. And that, when all's said and done, is the highest tribute to be offered this truly great star.

"Sins of the Fathers" is quite as enthralling in its development, as the earlier Jannings successes, and what a picture for youth of the day to see! The star plays the role of Wilhelm Spengler, rising from a German-American waiter, through successive stages of restaurant keeper and saloon keeper, to a very prince of bootleggers, only to have his whole life come crashing around his shoulders, due to his own acts, and bringing him in the end, back to his original humble status.

Ruth Chatterton, famous star of the legitimate stage, makes her debut in pictures in the role of "Greta." With the screen feature, the Walker offering includes some entertaining vaudeville, with two excellent tap dancers, (some very amusing Negro "patter" and other well-presented numbers.

YOST SPURGEON
Popular all over the world where his pictures are always drawing cards even in the most out-of-the-way places, Tom Mix is even more popular right here at home, and his current picture at the Yost Spurgeon theater, "King Cowboy," is attracting his fans at every performance.

Wash clothes in water softened with Melo—save 1/3 to 1/2 the usual amount of soap

CLOTHES washed in hard water are hard to get clean. The hardness in the water combines with the soap and makes scum. The scum collects dirt. It gets into the fabric of the clothes. No amount of rinsing can get it all out.

But soften hard water with Melo and there isn't any scum. The water makes wonderful suds. Melo saves from 1/3 to 1/2 the amount of soap ordinarily used. With or without soap, water softened with Melo is a wonderful cleaner. Get it at your grocer's.

Cudahy's Puritan 100% Leaf Lard

The Perfect Shortening

Cudahy's Puritan Lard is famous as "The Perfect Shortening" because it assures better baking and cooking.

To be perfect a shortening must have superior mixing and blending qualities. You have these in Puritan Lard—due to its fine grained texture. Puritan makes cakes and pastry that are light, fluffy and delicious; pie crust that is tender, crisp and flaky; the kind which you are proud and delighted to serve.

Puritan Lard is also unequalled for deep frying. The golden brown seal which it quickly forms around the food retains the original flavor; this prevents greasy, soggy food.

Puritan is 100% pure leaf lard, open kettle rendered, free from moisture and chilled in the package. Because of these finer qualities less of it is required.

Puritan Lard does not smoke at cooking temperature. As it does not absorb food flavors, it may be used again and again.

You'll be delighted with Puritan—At your dealers.

"The Test Tells"

The Cudahy Packing Co. U.S.A. makers of Puritan Hams Bacon Lard

"H-O is delightful. It's the only oatmeal I actually enjoy."

And no wonder, for H-O is so different from ordinary oatmeals—it seems like a new cereal.

H-O is different because it's made differently. H-O is toasted—'til its tiny, cup-shaped flakes are butternut-brown through and through—toasted until it's tasty as roasted chestnuts, fragrant as freshly roasted coffee.

BETTY MARR

Oatmeal—enticing with its aroma of sun-ripened grain, delicious as a confection—more nourishing than milk—a new conception of an age-old cereal—that's New Style H-O. Cooks in 2 to 3 minutes.

COST RELATION BOY LEVYERS TO TO WELD TOLD AT FARM MEET ON TOMORROW

Striking figures showing the relation of cultivation costs to yield in walnut groves were presented to an audience of 40 persons last night at the Garden Grove Farm center meeting. Assistant Farm Advisor M. H. Kimball, of Los Angeles county, outlined results obtained in cost of production investigations in 40 groves.

According to Kimball, the growers with the lowest cultivation costs on the same type of soil with other conditions equal, produced the largest yield. No increase in quality of nuts resulted from the increased cultivation on the other groves, he said. Increasing cultivation will not boost the yield, he declared, and stated that keeping down weeds was all the cultivation necessary in addition to putting the land in shape for irrigation. Cultivation costs of growers on heavy black loam soil varied from $6.23 to $33.49, while on light soil they varied from $4.17 to $30.15, the investigations showed.

Norman M. Blaney, executive secretary of the farm bureau here, outlined the advantages accruing to far bureau members from the arrangements recently made for making compensation insurance available without a minimum rate. Farmers will pay exactly the premium represented by the amount of their payroll at whatever rate is accorded to their class by the state insurance commissioner, Blaney explained. A still greater advantage to the small farmer is seen in the fact that the premium does not have to be paid at one time. Two annual payments will be made, he said.

The policies give coverage on employers' liability as well as on workmen's compensation. Even under the state plan, where a minimum premium of $15 has been set, a man whose payroll does not run up to $750 on grove labor has been penalized, Blaney said. With no minimum on the insurance put into effect by the farm bureau, no one will be penalized, he pointed out.

A coupon for membership in the league is printed on the first page of the second section today.

by refuting the report it wished to include only the Brea-Olinda union high school district. This communication was ordered filed.

Fanning Report Heard
L. A. Hogue, chairman of the chamber committee on the project, asked W. E. Fanning superintendent of grammar schools in Brea, to report on a meeting of a county educational committee, which he had attended on Wednesday. At this meeting certain amendments to the junior college law, as it now stands, were introduced. Fanning said, and Senator Edwards and Assemblyman Craig instructed to work for their passage and to submit, if possible, to the legislative committee. Fanning stated that while no definite action was taken in the matter the result of the meeting seemed to further the idea of a county junior college.

Hogue believed that the proposed amendments to the law, involving district representation on the board of control and the choice of a district in entering into a junior college district, would take care of Brea's particular problems in the matter. He suggested that the matter be left in the hands of the committee for the present and promised that body would keep in close touch with the situation. Others speaking on the subject were W. A. Culp and Tom Pickrell.

$10,000 Bond Issue
Frank Mascon, chairman of the city planning commission, announced that the city council of Brea shortly is to ask for a $10,000 bond issue for the purpose of completing the city park, work on which has had to be delayed for lack of available funds. Mascon pointed out that the work of the county in expending $65,000 for the straightening and improving of the Brea canyon road, destined to be one of the most traveled roads in Southern California, gave Brea wonderful opportunity for an outstanding landscaping of her city park.

Mrs. John Gandy, chairman of entertainment, introduced the Brea-Olinda union high school male quartet, accompanied by Miss Louise Chapman.

Raymer, speaker of the evening, was introduced and because of the lateness of the hour spoke briefly. He told of the work of the Santa Ana body in its attempt to secure the desirable base, of his visit to Washington and Lakeland on the project and of the vast amount of data that had been gathered, ending with the suggestion for co-operation of all interests in an effort to secure the base for the county, regardless of location.

RESPECTING SCIENCE

Evidence of the responsiveness of the press to criticism which can be acted upon without violating the newspaper's respectable code of public service is commented upon at length by the weeklies. The specific instance was the effort, extending to the ridiculous, to give the public the news about Einstein's latest theory. The New York Herald had the whole theory, only five pages to be sure, but intricate matter, cabled from Berlin. This was done at great expense for two groups of men, one at either end of the cable. The New York Evening Post printed a facsimile of part of the text which was, without success, transmitted by telephotography. Other newspapers and news bureaus have exerted themselves and their reporters extensively, even excessively, to present in their columns material on the theory and the opinion of leading scientists of the country on it.

Says the New Republic about journalistic enterprise in this instance,

"Thus we have the spectacle of newspapers spending thousands of dollars to print something which the editors themselves must be well aware can be read by only an insignificant minority of their subscribers, and understood by one even smaller . . .

"By American standards, there is no doubt that the editors were right, and that the publication was good business. Their readers probably enjoyed the subtle compliment of the assumption that they might be able to comprehend these complicated formulae; they wanted, from plain curiosity, to see what the stuff looked like. While they know very well that there is an aristocracy of intellect, probably they like to pretend, even with an ostentatious self-deprecation, that there is none, that one man's brain is as good as another's. 'The Einstein dope' they might say, 'no, I haven't read it yet. But I clipped it out.'"

The New York Nation also comments on the enterprise of the journals of the metropolises and extends itself to discuss more learnedly the proposition of arriving at worthwhile, water-proof truths by means of pure theory, which Einstein claims to have done but which was discredited following the Middle Ages in favor of reinforcement from the laboratory.

"The physicist is becoming more and more a man who deals with symbols and less and less a man who deals with observable facts," says the Nation. "Out of himself he spins formulae much as the school man spun syllogisms, and if his tendency to do so continues as strong during the next twenty years as it has during those just past, then Bacon's image of the spider will soon be as applicable to the modern physicist as it was to those logicians to whom it was first applied."

A bill introduced in New Hampshire provides that all hitch-hikers using the state highways must have a license and carry lights. How about fenders and a vocabulary, too?

PASSPORTS AND VISAS

The season for passports is approaching, except for those far-sighted people who are already prepared for their anticipated travels to foreign lands this summer.

The cost of the passport, $10, and the visas of foreign countries is no small item to traveling students and teachers who are being catered to by steamship companies and tourist bureaus, but not by their own government.

A Rhodes scholar spent $230 on passports and visas during his three years as a scholar. The minimum passport expense of an American who visits the principal continental countries is $40. It is when these figures are compared with the similar expenses of travel of people of foreign countries that one is moved to protest. A German pays $1.20 for his passport, valid, as is ours, for two years. The German's British, French, and Italian visas can be obtained for $2.00. The British citizen pays $1.80 for his passport which is valid for five years and after the five years it can be renewed annually for the next five years for 24 cents a year. A French citizen pays $1.40 and an Italian $2.00 for his passport.

The travelers of the United States are not discriminated against by their former allies and enemies, but visas are on a reciprocal basis and the American whose own government charges the foreign traveler $10 for a visa is himself charged a higher price for a visa from a foreign country.

It is estimated that the 200,000 American passports issued annually bring in an annual revenue of $2,000,000. The budget appropriation for the Passport Bureau is $63,000. The difference in the two figures is quite an income for the government, but at an expense to many people who cannot well afford it and from whose travels the school children and students of the country and the foreign relations department of the government derives considerable unseen and immeasurable value.

At the time when only the well-to-do went abroad, $230 was not much, but now when a traveler can make the whole trip from New York to the principal countries of Europe for twice what the Rhodes scholar spent for passport and visas during his three years, those expenses pinch a class of people who feel it. Strangely enough, too, the Congress raised the passport and visas charges to $10 in 1920.

This is one of the matters in which we are justified in looking to Hoover to set right. He appreciates the benefits of foreign travel and the acquaintance of the people of one nation with those of another to international relationships, economic and political.

LIVING AND LEARNING

William Cullen Kemp, 78 years of age, was a continuous student at Columbia University for 60 years, and the holder of sixteen academic degrees. It is said that a relative bequeathed him $2500 a year as long as he remained in college. He was known to many generations of students as "student Kemp."

The fact that he spent so many years in study seems to be the only claim he had to fame. Certainly if he gained all the learned degrees attributed to him he had little time for anything else.

Here is what we look upon as a good example of a wasted life. A man spending his life receiving and not giving or using. Learning has two possible objectives, self satisfaction and service. The satisfaction comes from actually cultivating the mind and knowing much about the world, its inhabitants, and their achievements, merely for the pleasure of being an educated man and the resulting keen enjoyment of the good things in life. The other objective is in putting to beneficial use the facts and theories one has absorbed. To carry knowledge or achievement a little farther than other generations.

But here evidently was a man who peculiarly missed both. He evidently did not stop to enjoy the fruits of his learning. His study was not a means to an end, either of personal gratification or of service to the world. Study was an end in itself. Can anything be more futile? It was not even selfish, it was merely the veriest drifting and taking the easiest way. One in this position is of little use to himself or to anyone else.

While Kemp was probably the most extreme example of consciously planned wasted effort, many college and university men approximate his condition. Study, especially class room or organized class laboratory work or lectures after a certain period either in time or results, becomes mere loafing and a deadening of initiative and desire for competitive struggle. It is so easy to just go on reading and listening to others. Such learning with no worthwhile end in view is worse than useless. It is deadly to every good thing in a man including his self-respect, and the best one can say is that it is harmless to others, if waste can ever be said to be harmless.

Study is only a means to an end, and not an end in itself, whether it be done in an organized university or by oneself. How much more useful $2500 a year would have been spent on boys and girls who know when to quit studying and go to work utilizing the material.

Judging from the way the gangsters have been slaying one another lately, perhaps the police ought to give 'em protection, and jail looks to be the best place.

OTHER BIRTHDAYS THIS MONTH

February is regarded as an unusually notable month, with two famous birthdays to be celebrated and St. Valentine's day to add spice. But there are additional reasons for setting it apart from the rest of the calendar.

William Tecumseh Sherman was born in Lancaster, Ohio, February 11, 1735; Daniel Boone was born in Berks County, Pennsylvania, February 12, 1809; Mark Hopkins was born in Stockbridge, Mass., on the fourth of this month, in 1802; Alice Freeman Palmer was born in Colesville, N. Y., February 21, 1855; James Russell Lowell was born in Cambridge, Mass., February 22, 1919; Henry Wadsworth Longfellow was born in Portland, Maine, February 27, 1807, and Thomas A. Edison was born in Milan, Ohio, February 11, 1847.

For all that it is a short month and carries "Ground-hog Day."

On Such a Basis Is Crime a Good Trade?

San Francisco Chronicle
Fifty-thousand-dollar jewel robbery in Florida! Sounds like easy money to a fool kid. But what did the crook actually get out of it?
The robbery was not a $50,000 trick at all. The retail value of the stuff was $28,000. Lloyd's of London know because they carried the insurance.
Only the kindest hearted fence will give the crook as much as 10 per cent of this value for the plunder. What the crook probably gets is about $2500 cash. Let's see if this is a good business proposition.

The burglar had to be an expert. It is no game for an amateur. The course of education probably included at least one term in a prison. The crook had to spy out and plan his job, probably long in advance. He had to pay transportation, pay hotel bills and have good clothes so he could circulate without arousing suspicion. Maybe he had to pay for inside information, and that is not done on a credit basis.

Then, after all this investment in an enterprise that might blow up, escaping detection by one of accidents that never can be foreseen, the crook has to fight his way to the fence with his loot, through a network of relentless, cunning agents of the underworld who would rather spend two dollars getting back stolen stuff than pay out one dollar on a policy. It is cheaper in the end. And these underwriters can start the wheels moving in Africa, or Europe, just as easily as they can put in a local telephone call.

Even if he gets the $2500 cash the crook is not out of the woods. He may yet have to call in lawyers and bondsmen, expensive luxuries. And there always is a chance of prison in the end, not so sure as it ought to be, but there just the same.

Fire Tide Stemmed?

Oakland Tribune
Statisticians follow the fire losses, about twelve months in the rear. It takes time to produce figures guarded against error.

When the National Board of Underwriters announced, as they did the other day, that the total fire loss for the United States in 1927 was close to 473 million dollars while in 1926 it was almost 562 millions, there are causes for amazement at the large figures and at the 90 million dollar reduction.

Experts are wondering if the rising tide of fire losses has been stemmed and if this month is the dawn of a better year. They point out that when an army has gained a signal victory the commanding general does not sit back and rest on his laurels.

What he does is "to plan new maneuvers which will inflict a still more crushing defeat upon his enemy and carry them out without giving the defeated forces an hour's respite."

If the fire menace is on the run, the incentive should be to keep it running. California, with a loss of more than twenty millions in 1927 may be interested. Only New York, Pennsylvania and Illinois had greater fire losses.

Just Another Busy Day!

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

It has been suggested that traffic lanes for fish be established in some of the rivers frequented by shad and salmon.

The kids begin to walk in queues
When first they start to school,
The human race its way pursues
By fixed and rigid rule,
The cities are sliced up by streets
From border unto border;
Man moves in squads, platoons and fleets;
His life is ruled by order.

"Turn right! Turn left!" or "Go!" or "Stop!"
By word of mouth or light
The heavy-fisted traffic cop
Directs us day and night.
As disciplined as bees in hives
Our great and mighty nations
Eat, sleep and move and live their lives
By laws and regulations.

And now in order would we keep
The waters down below
And tell the fishes in the deep
The way that they shall go
We mean by firm but gentle force
Their own sweet wills to fetter
And lead them all to steer a course
Which we believe is better.

Perhaps intensive discipline
At work or rest or play
Assist in keeping people in
The straight and narrow way.
Our rules may all be for our good;
Undoubtedly we need 'em,
But certainly I think we should Leave these poor fish their freedom!

FAIR ENOUGH
After all why shouldn't the Republicans make up that Democratic deficit. They got the goods it was spent to buy.

Dr. Frank Crane's Friendly Talk

By Dr. Frank Crane

Of all the saints in the calendar I think my favorite is Saint Valentine.

There are all sorts of things for saints to do. They have the poor and unfortunate to look after, some of them guard sailors and some landmen, some of them look after babies and some after old people, but the saint that attends to young people at about the mating age has quite the biggest and most delicate job on his hands.

Young folk are notoriously willful and headstrong when they fall in love. A young man of fine quality will persist in bestowing his affections and loyalty upon some baby doll that everyone besides himself knows to be unworthy. The finely equipped young lady will persist in adoring some rascal who is a notorious drunkard or rake.

Very often these young people are singularly averse to consulting with their parents or relatives. The old people do not "understand."

So if there ever was a crisis in which the good offices of a patron saint are needed it is the hand-holding period.

For if Saint Valentine does not attend to them, who will? I freely confess that I would not want his job.

Taking it all in all, he gets along pretty well. Of course, even a saint misses it sometimes. But any one who has undertaken to steer young heads through the troubled sea of love-making knows that it is no child's play.

You have an instinct that is as old as animal creation to deal with. You have ideals and imaginings that are none the less real because they are so vagrant.

Looking back upon your own career you are surprised to find that you have got through with it as well as you have.

And if it were not Saint Valentine, what would become of us? He presides over the oldest game in the world, which is regulating the fateful business of selecting the right woman or the right man.

There may be other questions that are important, such as the tariff, prohibition and the income tax, but these are questions that peep out of the attic windows of the mind.
The question of selecting the right companion is one that sits at the fireside of the soul.
Saint Valentine is needed.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By Glenn Frank

WHAT MASS PRODUCTION IS

Many superficial critics of our machine age regard mass production as simply a slick scheme for swelling profits on shoddy goods. Genuine mass production is, on the contrary, one of the most socially valuable methods modern mankind has evolved.

It means specialization on articles that have the greatest possible value to the greatest number of people. Genuine mass production does not follow the whims of the period or fall into step behind the will-o'-the-wisp of capricious fashion. It settles down to the business of meeting basic needs.

It centers its operation upon articles that meet measurably permanent needs and demands. It seeks the utmost simplicity of design consistent with essential utility and beauty.

It declines to use other than durably excellent materials in manufacture.

It strives to put such good materials and such good workmanship into its articles that their intrinsic merit will be their most effective sales argument. It is unwilling to save money through shoddy production and waste money through sales pressure.

It strives to put its prices low so that many may buy. It strives to put its wages high so that many may be able to buy. It takes imagination, insight, and ingenuity on the part of the managerial minds of industry to see the logic and the profit in the full run of the philosophy of standardization, mass production, and mass distribution as I have here suggested it.

The routine minds of business can go part of the way. The pioneer minds of mass production have gone all the way, and have proved that it is possible to have higher wages, shorter hours, lower prices, and larger total profits.

When the contagion of their success has spread widely enough, we shall see that mass production is one of the instruments of the humanity of the future will use to achieve sound social progress.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

EVERYBODY

Look out for Everybody. When Everybody says it, it's right. Everybody does it and one lone voice is raised in opposition, look again, listen again. That one lone voice may be right.

Whenever I hear somebody say, "Everybody is for it except that old crank," I remember the schoolhouse in the little village in the hills.

The old schoolhouse was shabby. The floors slanted like the decks of a sinking ship and the walls and the floors had not been on intimate terms in years. If a window were jammed open it had to be hammered shut. Clearly the schoolhouse had reached its last day.

Everybody said, "Build a new schoolhouse. A nice new one. With the gym and everything. A swimming pool. A library. A garden." Each neighbor spoke up for his own hobby. Everybody was for the new schoolhouse. Except old man Hill. He wasn't. "You don't need any schoolhouse," said he.

"Yes we do. This one is impossible. Look at it. Falling down about our ears. We have to have one. Everybody's for it." "I'm against it. You don't need a schoolhouse. You haven't any."

"Look at the schoolhouse that Swartney has." "Children," went on the old man, as though no one had spoken, "You haven't any children in this village to go to school. That's why we let it go. We only got seven young people in the whole valley and they go to high school in town."

Then Everybody went home. When Everybody says something take care. Look for the one voice raised in opposition and listen to what it has to say. Everybody says that all the children ought to be vaccinated; Everybody says that all the children ought to have their tonsils out; Everybody says all the children ought to have an intelligence test. Maybe so, maybe not. But wait a minute.

There is no such person as Everybody, no such thing as ALL the children. There may be some children in need of vaccination, of operation on nose and throat, of George Bernard Shaw's new play is called "The Apple Cart," but it probably will turn out that he's giving somebody the raspberry again.

A Boston high school boy reports the theft of a $450 raccoon coat. What's wrong with that story?

The constitution is mankind's greatest document, with the possible exception of the receipt for the last payment on the family fliwer.

The army can't get its new dress uniforms because of a shortage in the supply of gold braid. At last, a legitimate reason for disposing of a few admirals!

A headline in the Chicago Daily Tribune says "Chicago Gets More Police." Evidently some of the police have been growing careless.

The Chicago sanitary district spent more than $1,000,000 to build a bridge path. The citizens ought to be able to bridge over that.

One-third of the accidents in building construction are due to falling objects, says a statistician. The rule applies 100 per cent, however, in the Stock Exchange.

Italian school children study political speeches. Italy is getting pretty severe treatment from Mussolini.

A Nebraska senator introduced a bill to put barber colleges on a plane with institutions of higher learning. Perhaps that's because barbers have so many heavy questions to settle.

It's just possible Mars may have been trying to get in touch with the earth and tuned in on one of those tenors who wants to show everybody he can hold a high falsetto note for ten minutes.

A California bridegroom, visiting his parents-in-law for the first time, was struck with an iron bar by his mother-in-law and shot at by his father-in-law. It's just possible he is beginning to believe he married into the wrong family.
